We're all together...

...for the ride, although we all get on and off at different times and places. From our days at Park and Rec to school field trips to high school sporting events, we've all felt the comfort of Big Red's green, worn seats, temperamental AC, and of course North's number one fan, Mitch. Riding Big Red is a privilege. It's an honor. We load up the bus with our sports equipment or musical instruments, readily accepting the chance to represent our community. In addition to our teammates and friends, we fill Big Red with enthusiasm and school pride. No matter where you're going, Big Red will always bring you home.

class of 2014

As we entered into the world of an upperclassman, we learned to expect the unexpected. For some, this was our first time taking college level courses or having the freedom of driving on our own. We all played major roles in our sports teams, music groups, theater productions, and clubs and are now prepared to lead them in the upcoming year. Our candy machine has become a landmark of the school and money continues to pour in for our class. Lasting memories were shaped with the fun times we had during homecoming week and our first prom. As childhood leaves the corners of our eyes, we continue to take on more responsibilities and begin to think about the next chapter of our lives after NAHS. We, the class of 2014, must remember not to let the fear of failure prevent us from striving for success as we ready ourselves to take the final steps of our high school career next year.

JUNIOR PROM

For the first time this year on April 27th, summer was beginning to make an appearance and it was just in time for the Junior Prom. Everyone looked stunning in their gorgeous dresses and elegant tuxes as they walked down the red carpet into the Johnson and Wales Inn. As they entered the ballroom, tables were decorated as "Cities Across America" ranging from Honolulu to New York City, Boston to LA, and even Nashville to Miami. Everybody exemplified the theme by wearing the city's decorations from the table. Even though it seemed like years before we received our food, the Johnson and Wales culinary students managed to impress us with a delicious meal and an ice cream bar. As our DJ began to play the music, we all danced until our feet grew numb. While the last song played and we danced to the final note, we came to realize that high school was slowly coming to an end. We have learned to appreciate these memorable moments and it's these experiences that we will cherish as a class forever...even if we do end up in cities that are miles apart. Junior Prom was a blast, but Senior Prom will be even better!

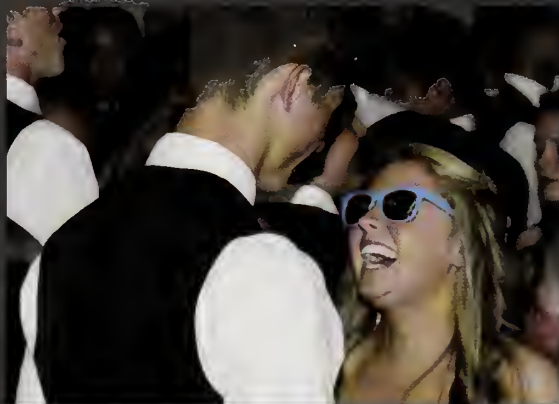

-Colin Quinn

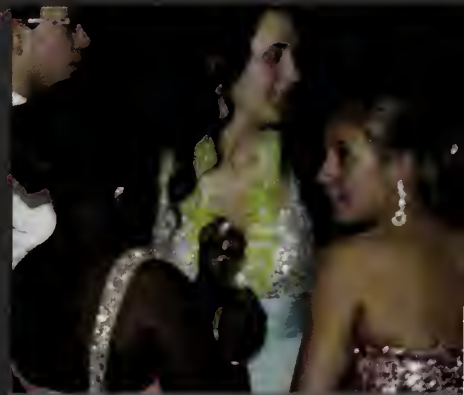

Emily Hodgkins, Riley Devlin, and Miranda Berkley can keep the smiles off of their faces as they pose together.

Prom Queen Susie Udall and Prom King Colin Quinn shine as they lead the first dance of the night.

Jake Lang and Sarah Marrissey share a laugh on the dance floor.

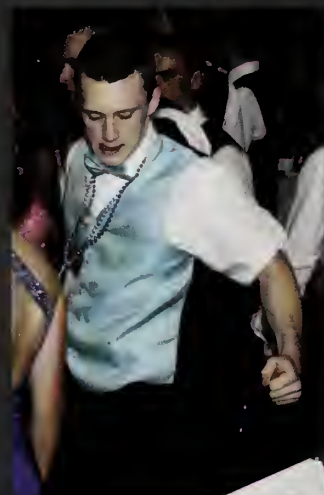

Nicole Irish, Cassidy Carlson, and Alyssa Gaw take a break from dancing to catch up with one another.

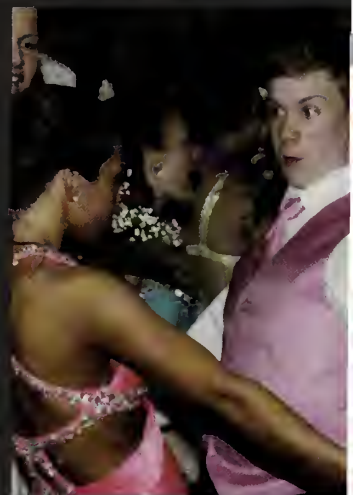

Adam Shelton and Margan Cadd share a romantic dance together.

Ali McHugh walks up to receive her rose and place on the Prom Court.

Aidan Canning has got the moves like Jagger.

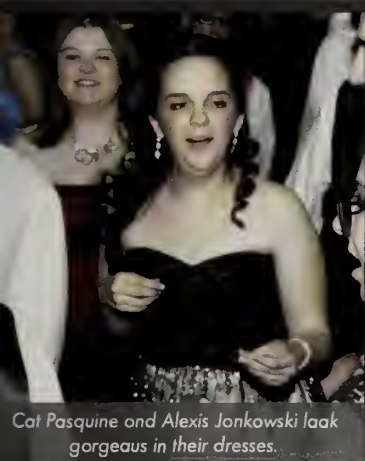

Kerrin McTernan and Nathan Tartaglia show off their moves.

Emily Hodgkins, Dan Colvin, Emma Goulding, Matt D'Attilio, Susie Udall, Colin Quinn, Brad Fontaine, Jill Costello, Ali McHugh, Kyle Fairbanks, Krista Kapitan and Anthony Manganaro make up the Prom Court for the Class of 2014. Everyone looks so beautiful!

Cat Pasquino and Alexis Jonkowski look gorgeous in their dresses.

Jimmy O'Rourke is looking dapper in that purple suit while Keshon Cummings is really rocking those shades.

Brondon Hordy, Molt Hotch, and Jack Blase cheer for the members of the Prom Court. They look very polished dressed up in their formal attire.

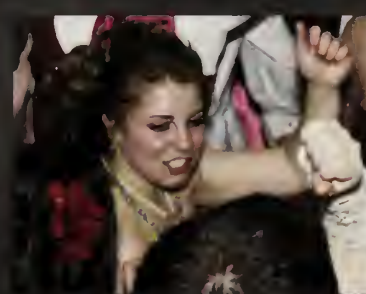

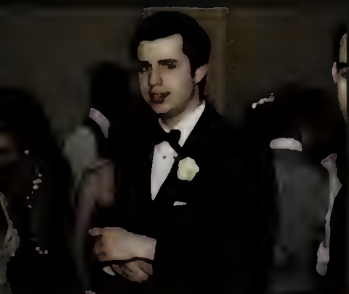

Benjamin Gingras is obviously having a blast.

class of 2015

This is about the middle stage of our high school career. We are all finally getting comfortable with the school, teachers, and students. We are one step above the freshmen but we are not quite at that upperclassmen level yet. Our class is starting to make its mark on the school with its academic, musical, and athletic achievements. Those who previously played on freshmen and JV teams are making their way up to varsity. This is also the time when we are starting to think about what we want to do with our lives after school. We begin considering our college options while taking the PSATs. We are all preparing ourselves to reach that upperclassmen level: getting ready for the upcoming decisions which will require lots of thought and bring us a great deal of stress. It isn't going to be easy figuring out what college we want to go to or what occupation we want to take on when we grow up, but we have all been well prepared and are ready for the challenge.

Freshman Sophomore Social

The Freshman Sophomore Social was a night full of memories and dancing that will never be forgotten. The dance took place in the Middle School cafeteria, blistering with a winter theme. Everyone came in looking stunning with their dresses, or shirts and ties, ready to step on the dance floor. The two classes began the night separated by an imaginary line, but as the night continued, the grades came together as one and had an outstanding experience. Pop and Rap music played throughout the night, but a small amount of slow songs gave the crowd a mix of genres to listen to. People danced until their legs gave out and sang until their voices were hoarse. Everyone was exhausted by the end, but they all believed their wild dancing was worth it. The dance gave people the opportunity to show off new moves and talents, meet new friends, and have an amazing evening. The Freshman Sophomore Social turned out to be a phenomenal success with the help of the class advisers and class officers, and it is a night that will always be remembered.

class of 2016

Change was our biggest enemy as well as our best friend coming into this school year. It was difficult going from the "Big man on campus", to walking across the street and hearing the "Fresh meat" chant ringing in our ears. It was time to step up to the plate and test our true abilities. We gained more freedom as Freshmen, but with that freedom came much more responsibility. This class never disappoints as we dominate in academics, clubs, sports, and other activities. We made sure we were a force to be reckoned with as we performed well in the rallies and other school wide events. As we grow more accustomed to this school, we will continue to impress and to make sure we meet every challenge at hand. Go Freshmen, and go Class of 2016!

Special Olympics

Held on May 21st, this year's Special Olympics Day Games were a huge success! With over 600 athletes, this year's Luau themed event was one of the largest in the state. The weather was a little more humid than expected, but the athletes stayed hydrated and had a great time! There were many friendly volunteers from groups such as Project Unite, Best Pals, and the National Honor Society that helped make it a memorable day. The athletes wore their medals proudly as they returned back to their schools at the end of the day. The 2013 Special Olympics School Day Games was by far one of the most enjoyable days of the year!

iN Action

Below: Senior Captains Erin Crosman and April LoFreniere hold the banner for the opening game of Community. They also decorate the boys' lockers with condy every Friday!

Right: Corly Ebzery and Michaylo Moore help Sydney Griswold into a stunt with a smile. For a move like this, Griswold must have a lot of flexibility and trust in her bases!

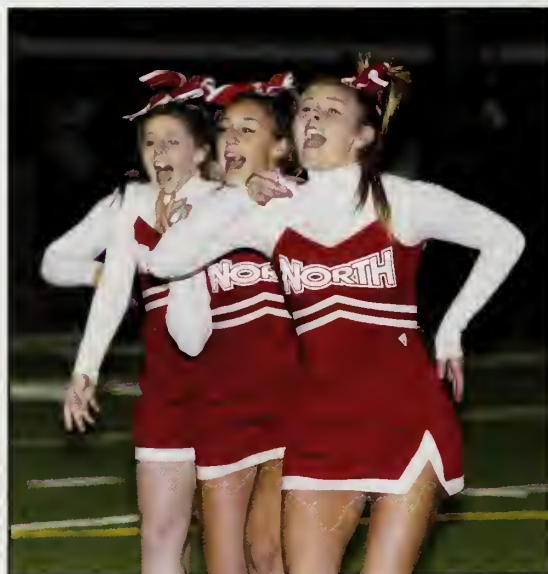

Above: The girls perform a flawless routine of half time during the Attleboro football game. They must be nervous with a crowd that big!

Right (middle): Rochael Gaumand, Jen Poulhus, and Morgon Silvestri get loud on the sidelines. They have been proud supporters of Big Red all year.

FALL CHEERLEADING

"Give up, Never!"

Left: Michayla Moore blows a kiss to the students at the Homecoming Rally. Moore's stunt group was rock solid all season, impressing hundreds of fans.

Below: Erin Crosman, Carly Ebzery, and April LaFreniere bundle up for a chilly night under the lights at Community Field. They are always smiling together, no matter what kind of weather mother nature brings!

THE 2012 FALL CHEERLEADING season was one to remember. We started off our season right, as we worked hard at captains' practice and headed up to Mount Ida College for the UCA Cheerleading Camp over the summer. During the season, we cheered at both home and away football games. Not only did we support the football team during their games, we also showed our enthusiasm by decorating their lockers every Friday. This season also consisted of the fall fashion show, which was really fun. We went into the season determined to be just as successful as last year! The underclassmen really stepped up this year to fill in for the number of seniors we lost and we can not thank them enough. Cheering has become such a big part of our lives, and nights under the lights at Community Field will never be forgotten. We are so proud to be a part of Big Red and could not have asked for a better season!

Your Captains,
April LaFreniere and Erin Crosman

Far Left: The team entertains the crowd with an impressive half-time performance. They are very versatile, having the ability to do a number of stunts and flips.

Left: The seniors huddle together for one last hurrah at the Thanksgiving football game. Cheer has been a fall tradition for most of them since elementary school.

Front Row: April LaFreniere, Erin Crosman, Jen Mulhus, Marissa Meda, Carly Ebzery.
Middle Row: Elizabeth Cardella, Michayla Moore, Bigail Trimbach.

VARSITY JUNIOR VARSITY

Sonia Marks, Maggie Burchill, Nicole Zarembavicz, Rebecca Sek, Kylie Cummings, Karen Olsen, Summer McGowan, Cooch Wynn.

Below: Captains Alex Jette, Sean Peters and Harrison Carmichael. These three captains fought off injuries all year, displaying their toughness and gaining respect from teammates and coaches.

Right: North's offensive line approaches the ball. This group was big as well as fast. They were able to create wide holes, making it possible for the running backs to be successful.

Above: The senior class poses after beating Attleboro on Thanksgiving. This group never gave up and ended their high school football days on a high note.

Far Right: Senior Dwayne Hunter loads up to deliver a blow to a Feehan defender. Hunter was an unselfish player that worked hard whether he was carrying the ball or not.

Right: Senior Ryan Perran looks for a hole to open up in the line. Perran's ability to run and pass made him a dual threat that opposing teams feared.

Loyalty, Toughness, Discipline

Left: Senior Reid Holden takes the call from the sideline. Reid was key to North's defense, not just for his team-leading 46 tackles, but for his knowledge and experience.

Below: Matt Hardy and Ryan Perron pose with their Balfour trophies. These awards are given to the Offensive and Defensive MVP's on Thanksgiving

IT IS FAIR TO SAY that the Red Racketeers came into this season with same very high expectations. We had known since the end of the last season that we were going to be playing two very tough teams to begin the year with La Salle Academy and BC High an tap of an already difficult Hackamack League schedule. However, we knew that we had the talent and were up to the challenge. Our season started off with a huge game against La Salle Academy. With an outstanding effort from our Captain Alex Jette, we were able to win the game, 47-27. Next we were on the road to BC High, one of the best teams in Massachusetts. Despite an early scare by BC High, we were able to win 27-7. After a great first three weeks, our team hit a bad losing streak in the middle of our season, with tough losses to Foxboro, Franklin, and Staughton. However we were able to turn our season around, still looking for a Hackamack Championship. In a match-up against a team that many of us feel is one of our biggest rivals, we came out ready to get another win on a Friday night against Mansfield. We were able to take the lead when Ryan Perron rushed for a touchdown, later capped off by a touchdown from Dwayne Hunter to seal the win, 36-21. Although our match up against King Philip didn't turn out how we wanted, I don't think anyone could doubt the effort that we put forth as a team that night. After this tough loss, we took advantage of a good two weeks of practice in our preparation for the annual Thanksgiving Game against Attleboro. This Thanksgiving Game was one that many of us had been looking forward to since we were seven years old playing Pop-Warner together and, like our season as a whole, is one that we will never forget.

Your Captains,
Harrison Carmichael, Sean Peters and Alex Jette

For Left: North's defensive line Chikombo, Peters, Beckwith and Carmichael prepare for the snap. These four tormented quarterbacks all season, combining for nine sacks on the year.

Left: Senior Captain Alex Jette shakes a Foxboro defender. Jette was selected as the ESPN Boston player of the week for his game against LaSalle when he had 352 total yards and three touchdowns.

Below: Dwayne Hunter sends a kickoff flying through the air. Hunter was great all season, downing opponents deep inside their own territory.

Right: Seon Peters takes down the Attleboro quarterback. Peters will continue football in college playing tackle at Sacred Heart.

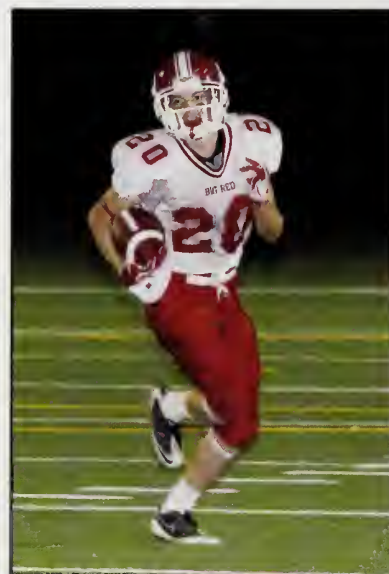

Above: Jack Blase makes a great catch over two Attleboro defenders. Blase will be taking over as one of the captains for next year's team.

Right: Senior Tyler Sellner returns a kick off against Feehon. Sellner was a key part of North's secondary, rarely allowing completions in his area.

For Right: Mike Lambert picks up a block as he runs down the field. Lambert scored all three touchdowns in the win against rival Feehon.

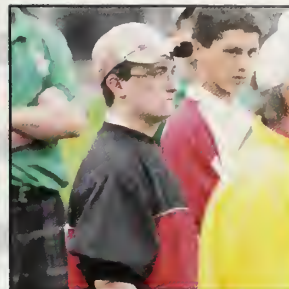

Above: North's offense lines up against Lo Salle Academy. North won their season opener against Rhode Island's number one team in decisive fashion.

GOLF

"Foooooore"

Left: Senior Ethon Reddington sends a drive down the fairway. Reddington's work in the off season paid off this year as he was a solid varsity player.

Below: Senior Brian Brigham lines up a putt. All season long Brigham was dependable on the green as he hardly missed.

IT HAS BEEN A SEASON TO REMEMBER. It was our pleasure as your captains to be a part of this season with all of you. We had some wonderful practices and hard-fought matches. We were able to beat Foxboro at their home course of Foxboro Country Club, which hadn't been done in six years. We Rocketeers finished fifth at the Hockomock Championship, beating Mansfield, Franklin, King Philip, and Attleboro.

Although the season was short, the memories will always be with us. Continue on the traditions we seniors have begun.

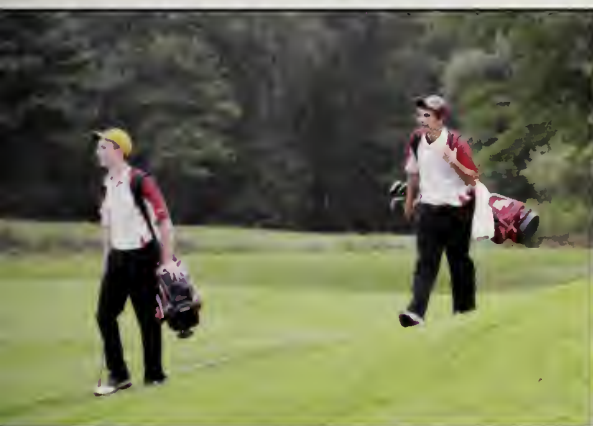

Good luck to the future captains and members of the team. Do what we haven't done in a long time, and bring home a Hock title.

From your Captains,
Eric Marchetti and Dave Joyce

VOLLEYBALL

"If you hesitate, you're too late!"

Left: Senior Meghan Mullen bumps the ball over the net to her opponent. Mullen learned the fundamentals quickly, beginning as a sophomore and advancing to varsity her senior year.

Below: Captain Meg Ronoghon prepares to put the smack down on Attleboro. Ronoghon is also a captain of basketball and spring track and field.

WHAT IS NORTH VOLLEYBALL? To us, it's not just a hobby, it's a lifestyle. We come into the season with different expectations, a new team with new goals and welcomed coach Jeff Crins to our family. While it took him some time to get used to our sarcastic, loud, and generally weird personalities, he fit right in. Whether it be quoting movies, breaking the tension with awkward comments, or bribing us with king size candy bars (he found out our team likes to eat), it's safe to say Coach did whatever it took to get that Hockomock League title. Every glance of the banner during games and practices gave us the motivation we needed. We wanted that number twelve more than any other team in the league. Our craziness can sometimes mask the determination we put into each game and practice. Our rowdy crowd this year was our anchor. They supported us every game, win or loss. They were at the end of the line giving us high fives and words of encouragement. We truly couldn't have asked for a more spirited or committed group. The family we created during this season was closer than we could have ever imagined. Whether you were titled as someone's "sister" or not, we all acted like it. We will never forget the memories, unity, or success we shared with you girls. Thank you for making this such a memorable season.

Love, your Captains,
Sydney Bennett and Megon Ronoghon

FIELD HOCKEY

"Our game's never been sicker...and we love it!"

Left: Senior Lauren Wanless confidently dribbles past Attleboro after a solid blacktackle. She had the team's back all season and is one of the best defenders in North's history.

Below: The team bambards Allysan Pacack after her phenomenal goal scored against Hingham in the past season. Pacack, Haver, and Brabant created miracles on the forward line.

FOLLOWING A TOUGH OFF-SEASON filled with indoor leagues, tournaments, and summer camps, the 2012 NAFH team, with our eleven seniors, strolled into tryouts eager to begin the season and finally get a seed in the MIAA State Tournament. After suffering lasses early in the season, we knew we needed to step up the level of focus and mental toughness if we wanted to have a successful year as the Comeback Kids. The more team dinners we had, the better our game got, so a trip to Baneyard before our first big game was a must. Beating KP 4-2, on their home field for the first time in years, put a dent in their morale and boasted ours'. October was our time to shine with a five game winning streak to start off the month. We proceeded to sweep Attleboro, tie Franklin (lasing a few teeth on the way), and shut down KP once again. Our 2-0 shutout on our haly ground versus KP secured us a spot in the Division I State Tournament for the first time in eleven years. Granted o bye the first round, we headed to Hingham, seed number four, with Sommy Adams wailing from the bus. Ally Pacack's goal gave us an early lead and Jackie Del Banis scored the unforgettable goal in 7v7 overtime. Although we last in a hard-fought 1-0 match to Dennis-Yarmouth, we are proud of our tournament run to the Quarter Finals and our 11-8-1 season.

It is strange how well some girls can get along with each other, especially thirty-eight of them. Team bonding reached its max with countless team dinners, sleepovers, and trips to Bagels (the key theme here being food). Whether it's midseason or offseason, these girls are family and long live the special memory of state tournament we shared with one another. We are so thankful and honored to have lead a team as fabulous as this and we wish the 2013 team and their captains Krista Kapitan and Riley Devlin the best of luck!

Love, your Captains,
Rose Maaney and Rebecca Leavitt

Far Left: Jacqueline Del Banis plows through the Attleboro defense with ease. Del Banis is a strong offensive force and was a top scorer in the league this year.

Left: Alexandra Ferri kicks the ball out of the circle after making a great save. Ferri's goaltending skills earned her the title of Hackamack All-Star.

GIRLS SOCCER

"No Excuses!"

Left: Erica LaFand effectively moves the ball down the field. LaFand has supported the varsity team well on defense for the past three years.

Below: Sabrina Manfils fearlessly heads the ball towards the net. She was a spectacular addition to the team this year.

THE 13-5-2 RED ROCKETEERS FINISHED with the best run in girls' soccer history. Beating our longtime rival Foxboro in our second game ensured an unforgettable season to come. Big wins over Mansfield and King Phillip gave us confidence as we won our way into the state tournament and earned second place in the Kelley-Rex Division. Only losing by one goal to Franklin, the best team in the state, proved that we were a team that could do great things. In our final regular season game, we beat Attleboro, keeping the Blue-Red Cup home, in a dramatic 2-1 victory with goals from Laura Patrana and our Blue-Red Cup MVP, Katherine McGwin. With our motto "NO EXCUSES", we were ready to play in our first playoff game against Weymouth. The nerves quickly wore off and we played until the final whistle blew in double overtime and headed into a shootout. After winning in penalty kicks, we were on to Plymouth South, where we pulled off another shocking win in sudden death overtime with a goal from Jamie Grinovic. Traveling to the number two seed, Needham, anticipating a tough game, we knew we had to play our hearts out. Unfortunately, the outcome was not in our favor, but we were proud of everything we had overcome. The run that we had was unbelievable and we accomplished every goal we had set for ourselves. The memories and friendships that we created will last a lifetime. We wish nothing but the best to the 2013 team and their captains Laura Patrana and Jill Castella. Love you girls, and make sure to always... WORK IT!

Your Captains,

Sarabeth Parent and Braake Maher

Far Left: Captain Sarabeth Parent dribbles past OA with ease. Parent is a well-rounded athlete, excelling in soccer, basketball, and tennis.

"Ubuntu" Let's Ride

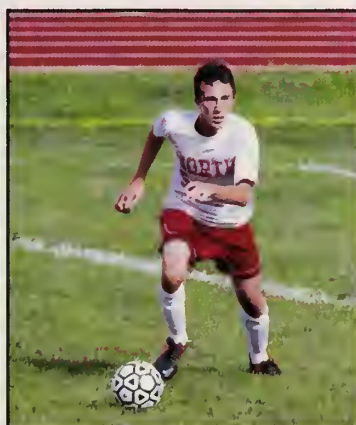

Left: Senior Matt McKim dribbles the ball down field. McKim's hard work in the off season helped him be a big contributor to the team.

Below: North players battle for position on a free kick. Although not always pretty, North found ways to score goals and win games.

BEFORE THE SEASON had even started, many people had already counted us out. We worked hard during the summer, putting many hours into captains practices each week. We entered tryouts in shape and ready to play. We started the season off a little rusty, losing some early games, but we eventually turned it around and began to play great. We picked up some good wins against rivals Mansfield and Attleboro. Our team played its best and showed great chemistry. We got the win we needed to qualify for the playoffs against Attleboro on our Senior Night. Although we didn't get a win in the playoffs, we gave it our all. We had solid performances all year from our seniors. Also many underclassmen stepped up to contribute to our team's success. With captains Victor Bader and Ryan Croke we are sure next year our team will continue its success.

Your Captains,
Taylor Christo and Charlie Amaya

Far Left: Senior Cam Burns takes a goal kick. Burns played great on defense all year and was rewarded by being named a Sun Chronicle All-Star as well as a Hockomock League All-Star.

Left: Junior Ryan Croke dribbles in the box. Croke's good play and leadership led him to be voted captain for next year's team.

THIS SEASON WAS OUR MOST SUCCESSFUL season in years. Our 4-1 dual meet record earned us second place in the large school division. Our season was successful, largely due to dedication to summer training and a great overall effort by the team. We have high hopes and expectations for next year's team, which will surely be one of the strangest in North Attleboro High School's history. Next year's captains Ian Flanagan (also this year's MVP) and Mike Kelleher, accompanied by other promising seniors such as Jack LaBante (this year's Unsung Hero award recipient) and Branden Laverdiere, will surely lead the team to even greater success than past seasons. We also expect big improvements from Jake McKinnan and Teddy Nolan. Good luck next year, boys. We are going to miss you guys.

CROSS COUNTRY

"Mental Toughness!"

Left: Senior Hayley Gentile battles to keep the lead in a close race with Mansfield. A varsity runner for three years, this girl loves to run!

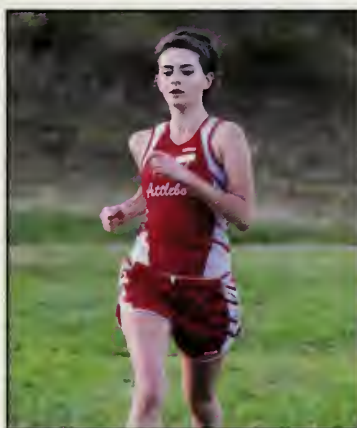

Below: Underclassman Kira Chandran and Christina Chorianopoulos get out hard for an early lead over Mansfield. It requires a lot of training to keep a pace like that!

2012 BROUGHT MANY BIG CHANGES to the Girls Cross Country team. These included losing many valuable senior runners and our beloved Coach, Ms. Bennett. However, we gained so much strength under the leadership of Coach Martes and our team had more depth than ever before. Many underclassmen stepped up to help our team improve to seventh in the Hockomock League. Although we finished 2-3, we proved that the underdogs could pull off some upsets in this tough league when we defeated Attleboro and newcomer Taunton.

This season was filled with such great memories, from the annual pasta dinner to team t-shirt making, and we grew closer and closer each day. We are so proud of each and every one of you and thank you for making this season so special. We wish the best of luck to the 2013 captains, Emily Chandran and Kathryn Loughnane. We know they will lead this team to another memorable and successful season. Good luck next year, love you all!

GIRLS BASKETBALL

"Expect the unexpected!"

Left: Danielle Perron holds her ground beneath the basket and successfully fights off three Franklin opponents. A starter in her sophomore year, she is sure to bring choos to the Hock in upcoming years, so look out!

Below: Melisso Beoupre excels on a fast break down the court, leaving Stoughton in her dust. Don't underestimate this sophomore, she is a huge force in the point.

IF YOU ASKED PEOPLE if they thought the North Attleboro High Schools girls basketball team would be Hackamack League Champions this season, they would laugh. This season exceeded every expectation and every goal set for the year. Losing four starters, many believed it would be a rebuilding year with many adjustments. But this was not the case! We proved that we're not a team to be overlooked with help from two, young sophomores, Melissa Beoupre and Danielle Perron, who stepped up and made huge strides for the team. Winning two nail-biters against Sharon and Franklin gave us the determination and confidence to beat anyone. We finished the year with a solid record of 16-5 (only losing two games in the Hackamack League to Dufree and Franklin). This year's girls basketball team had such a successful season that all twelve of us can look back at that banner hanging in the gym and feel proud that we were a part of the 2013 league championship team. Congratulations to captains Jill Costello and Ali McHugh who will lead the team in the right direction next year. Good luck girls!

"Never Give Up"

Left: Junior Ben Gardner takes a free throw. Gardner played some of his best basketball late in the season and he hopes to carry it over into next year.

Below: Senior Captain Ryan Perron sets up a play at the top of the key. Perron is a very well rounded player who can dribble, pass, shoot and play defense all very well.

SUCCESS ISN'T ALWAYS MEASURED by wins and losses. The 2012-2013 basketball season certainly did not lack special memories. The team's five seniors, captain Ryan Perron, captain Greg Gildea, Ryan Foster, Brandon Lumbra and Takudzwa Chikamba gave 100% all season. Their effort exceeded everyone's expectations for this year. With help from the hard working junior class, we were able to push each other at practice.

A big thank you to the coaching staff as head coach Mr. Perron put in unlimited effort and did everything in a "team first" mentality. JV coach Mr. Mulkerkins and freshman coach Mr. Ames did well this year preparing the underclassmen to step into starting roles next year. A big good luck to Captains Jack Blase and Jake Lang in the 2013-2014 season. Go Big Red!

WE STARTED THE SEASON with high hopes. We lost some important components to our squad, but we were determined to fight the odds and prove everyone wrong. This year, many underclassmen stepped up; our juniors became leaders and our sophomores became committed contributors to the team. Our sisterhood brought the team together to overcome the variety of challenges we faced this year. We really lived up to our motto, "Give Up Never."

Despite the multiple injuries, we came to practice with one goal in mind: winning. Through the bad luck, blood, and tears we were able to come together and form a successful team. Cheering at basketball games was not only fun, but it properly prepared us for upcoming competitions. The first competition was a rocky start but that didn't last long. Working harder and longer, we soon became Hockomock League Champions. Not long after that, we were crowned Regional Champions. However, no matter the outcome of our competitions, we captains love our team with all our hearts. Cheerleading has given us friendships to last a lifetime and it is something we will dearly miss. Redskirts forever.

BOYS SWIM

"Surf My Wake"

THE BOYS SWIM SEASON was yet another successful one. With what some might call a disappointing 5-5 record, we proved our dominance in the competitive Hackamock League with a 3rd place finish at the league meet. Much of our success was because of a strong senior class consisting of Baraski, Wentworth, MacDonald, and Hargrave. However, the hard work our underclassman put in every day at the YMCA is the main reason why we have so much success year in and year out. Freshman Randy Wentworth really stepped it up this year, swimming breaststroke at every meet, while sophomores Eric and Evan Chen and juniors Johnny Cummings and Colin Quinn proved to be key contributors to all of our wins. For the 4th straight season we sent at least four boys to Sectionals and States. Seniors Ryan Boraski, Drew Wentworth, Ben Hargrave and junior Johnny Cummings all qualified for the Red Rocketeers. In the end it was a great season and one that I will never forget. Thanks for all the memories and good luck in the future boys!

Your Captain,
Ben Hargrave

Below: Aidan Devers perfects the breaststroke, just one of four different strokes in the individual medley. Devers racked up big points this year and she's only a sophomore!

THE GIRLS SWIM team had an amazing 2012-2013 season. An undefeated season that is. Wins in the beginning of the season against Foxboro, Canton, and Taunton put us off to a great start, however we still would have to work even harder at our meets vs Franklin, Mansfield, and King Philip. Our effort and determination in the pool paid off at the King Philip meet, our last home meet of the season. Tied going into the last event, the 400 freestyle relay team would need to pull out a victory. Our win came down to the last leg when Sarah Hargrave out-touched King Phillip's swimmer and won the meet, crowning the 10-0 team Hockomock League Champions! We kept our streak going the following weekend at Milford High School where we won our seventh consecutive Hockomock League Meet title. At the Division I State meet at Springfield College, we placed sixth with only eight girls! Hargrave won two state titles in both of her events, the 200 and 500 yard freestyles. We are so proud of all your teamwork and accomplishments this season! Good luck next year and congratulations to the new captains, Sarah Blanchard and Catherine Roukhadze!

Your Captains,

"For The Boys"

Left: Senior Captain Reid Holden skates off the ice. Holden was a punisher on the ice and many opponents learned to avoid him.

Below: Senior Tim Joyce looks in a pass. Joyce was an unsung hero this year, not by scoring goals but getting many assists and setting up great scoring chances.

THIS SEASON WAS A TIME TO WIN. We had high hopes coming into the 2012-2013 season. Our defense was led by some very tenured defensemen with David Joyce, Ryan Burns, and Reid Holden starting every game. Our offensive gurus, Sean Young, Marshall Blackmon, and Tim Joyce were back together to lead the charge. With all of that, and a strong junior goalie Mott Roposo, there was no reason to think we couldn't make it to the playoffs again.

We rolled through our first five opponents, making it the best start in the team's history. After a tough loss to Canton, we responded with a huge 2-1 win over Oliver Ames. Two tough losses later we set of 9 and 3. In a Hock-shocking victory, we earned a playoff spot, beating Mansfield for the first time in our team's history. The season finished with a final record of 12-6-2, and then we moved into playoff time.

Our first opponent was Milford, and after a stunning show of goaltending and a resurgence of our offense we beat them 6-0. It seemed like fate that we would be given another shot at Canton. We shocked everyone holding them to a one point lead until an open ice goal at the end. Although the year had to end, thanks to the rowdy crowd and everyone involved we made memories we will never forget.

"The Creed"

Below: Senior Captain Tom Eustis holds his opponent in a perfect cross face cradle. This move became so iconic for him that his teammates began to call it "The Eustis."

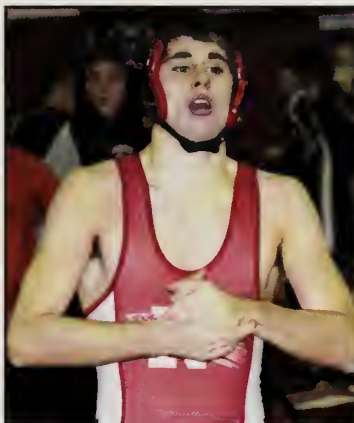

IT WAS AN EXCITING and unforgettable journey. We started off by winning 12 straight dual meets. Facing a tough loss to #1 in the state, St. John's Prep, we fought back and won our second consecutive Hock title. We did this by going undefeated in the league including a victory over rival Franklin.

The team came together at the Springfield duals, knocking off two ranked teams in the state. We finished the day with a nail-biting victory against the D1 State Champs, Springfield Central. North vaulted into the top 10 rankings in the entire state.

We faced a hardship during the season when we were stripped of our Hack title due to ineligibility. We held our heads high though and in the following few days, claimed the DII South Sectional title. We sent four wrestlers to All States and one, Peter Kummer, to New England.

Whether it was through one of Coach Burgess' "King of Pain" workouts, or through one of Coach Griffin's intense drilling sessions, the North Wrestling Team learned that it takes hard work to reach success.

Your Captains,
Tom Eustis and Pete Kummer

GYMNASTICS

"Stuck like glue!"

Left: Kara Mullaney flashes a brilliant smile after a perfect dismount on beam. Even though she is only a freshman, she sure knows how to stick it!

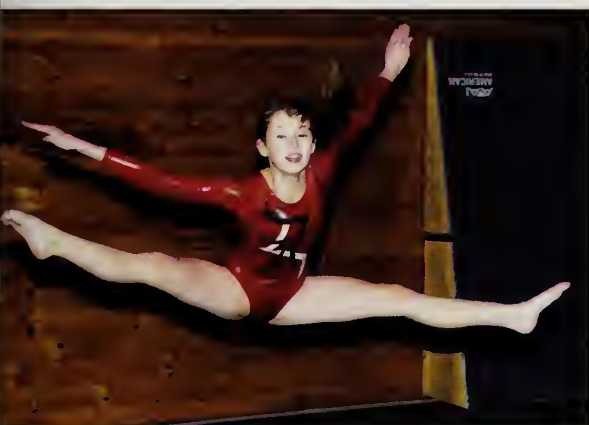

Below: A team huddle before every meet is a must for the gymnastics squad. Each year, the team grows in size and spirit and continually leaves their mark on NAHS.

THIS SEASON BROUGHT tough competition for the gymnastics team. However, participating in a sport is not about the wins and losses, but how a team deals with them. When faced with losses, our team, with the help of our coaches Krissy and Debbie, rose to the occasion and worked harder, improving our overall score at almost every meet. While putting in our best effort, we respected our opponents, earning the North Gymnastics team the Sportsmanship Award in the Hockomock League. This acknowledgment demonstrates our team's character better than any statistic ever could. The fact that the gymnastics team has won it for the second year in a row truly shows the kind of team we are. When faced with hardships this season, from illnesses to injuries, we dealt with them together as a team.

Although we were faced with many of these difficulties, they do not overshadow our good memories as a team. From team bonding pasta dinners to seeing new athletes compete at their first meet, the happy memories will be what we focus on in years to come. We will always remember and be grateful for the memories and friendships made during the season; we wish the best for the season to come!

Left: Senior Heather Shore prepares for another flawless dismount on bars. With four years of experience, Shore has become quite the veteran on the gymnastics team and on bars!

Below: Cooch McDavitt with Senior Captains Hannah McCarthy, Meg Mullen, and Sydney Bennett.

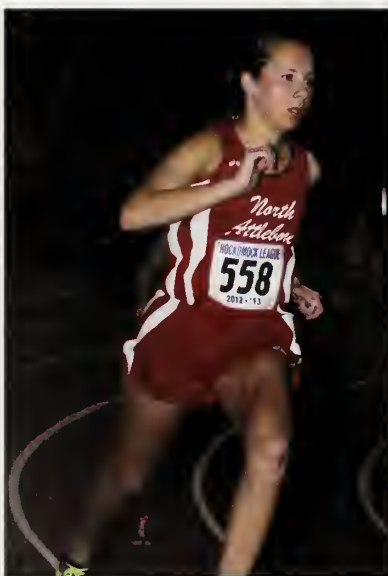

Right: Captain Hannah McCarthy and Emily Chondron lead their heat of the 1000, scoring crucial points for the team. Some of the team's strongest athletes, these mid distance girls conquer any race, from the 400 to the 1 mile!

Right: Katherine Loughnone powers through another 600, making it look easy. A born "trookie", Loughnone brings the team great success running year-round and will be an awesome captain next year.

For Right: Nicole Boulanger clears the high jump bar with ease. One of the underestimated "jumping shrimp" on the team, Boulanger scores big points every meet in high jump!

GIRLS WINTER TRACK

"These girls are on fiiiiire!"

Left: Kate Kummer follows through with her shotput throw, guaranteeing her another first place. Kate, an often overlooked player, took the league by storm this season, in her first year of indoor track, and was titled a Hockomock All-Star.

Below: Rose Mooney and Rachel Stevens explode out of blocks in a close 55 meter dash with Mansfield. The return of Coach Beith helped Mooney and Stevens run impressive times to lead the Hock and qualify for state meets.

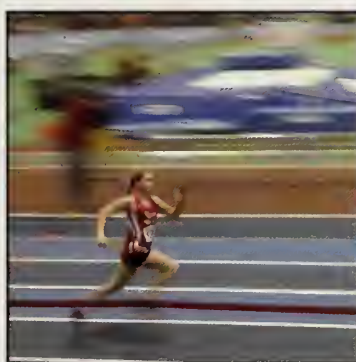

THIS SEASON WAS FILLED with successes, although we did not win as many titles as last year. Despite the difficult setback from our senior captain and last year's MVP, Sydney Bennett, due to surgery, numerous girls on the team stepped up and had a great impact. Our dual meet record of 2-3 does not show the hard work, dedication, and improvements we achieved this year. Girls scored points in new events, set records, and qualified for many state and all-state meets. The girls DMR, consisting of Katherine Laughnane, Autumn Hiltz, Hannah McCarthy, and Emily Chandran, crushed the school record, previously set in 2002. Steph Dubuc, Meg Mullen, and Kristina Harding broke the individual and team pentathlon records. The girls 4x200 team, Rose Maaney, Meg Mullen, Rachel Stevens, and Hana Caster, placed 8th at the state meet, qualifying for All-States. Kate Kummer added to the list of All-State qualifiers after placing 6th in shotput at the state meet.

This team is much more than a group of girls with a common love for track. The friendships that grew and memories that developed this season will last a lifetime. With so many girls on the team, it got crazy at times, but we always came together for warmups and team dinners. It will be difficult for many of the seniors to leave track behind as we move on to bigger things, however, this season is one to remember and one to keep close to the heart. The team elected Emily Chandran, Kristina Harding, and Katherine Laughnane as their new captains and we are confident they will make us proud next year. Good luck to everyone in the future. We love you all!

Your Captains,

Hannah McCarthy, Meg Mullen, Sydney Bennett

Left: Hana Caster, with amazing drive, gives the 4x200 team a huge lead as the opening leg. Although she looks small, Caster, a Hockomock All-Star and the team's top dash runner, shocked the Hock this winter.

BOYS WINTER TRACK

"Run fast. Jump high. Throw far."

Left: Junior Jake McKinnan leaps through the air in long jump. McKinnan is a great all around athlete and was voted captain for next year's team.

Below: Senior Captain George Bradley pulls away from a Mansfield opponent. George was great at motivating his teammates, making him a good fit for captain.

IT WAS YET ANOTHER STELLAR YEAR. We finished our dual meet season with a 4-1 record, which earned us the title of Kelly-Rex Division Co-Champions. At our Hackamack Championship Meet, our team dominated the competition and earned the title of Hackamack League Champions. At Division II State Championships, our team finished second overall, defeating our rival Mansfield. The success we achieved this season was due to the hard work of our athletes and coaches, along with leadership from upperclassmen. Athletes such as Alex Jette and Eric Beckwith, who were some of the top competitors in their respective events, also bolstered our team's success. This season records were broken in shotput, shotput relay, 300m dash, Distance Medley Relay, 4 by 800m relay, and the team pentathlon. In addition to the many accolades our team acquired throughout the season, we were also well known as one of the best-looking teams in the state. Finally, as this year's seniors leave, we are confident that next year's seniors will lead our organization to yet another successful year. Best of luck to next year's captains Mike Kelleher, Jake McKinnan and Ryan Crake!

With Love, your Captains,
Eric Beckwith, AJ Sarkis, and George Bradley

Left: Senior Captain Eric Beckwith prepares to take a throw. Beckwith holds the school record for shotput during Indoor Track.

Far Left: Senior Ben Jette clears a hurdle in the 55m race. Jette was the Hackamack champion in this event and also placed in shotput.

Above: Senior Captain AJ Sarkis just nicks a hurdle. Sarkis and Jette were great competition for each other all year, and in the end Sarkis held the better time by one-hundredth of a second.

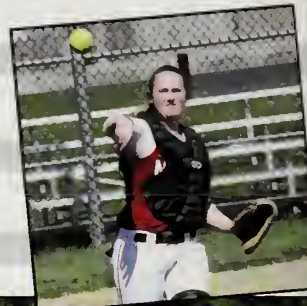

Above: Juniars Ryan Crake and Mike Kelleher battle it out in the 1000m. These two finished first and second at this year's league meet

SOFTBALL

"SQUAD UP!"

Left: Meg Calleran fires another strike against opponent Mansfield. With over 500 strikeouts in her career and a powerful presence on the mound, she is a force to be reckoned with.

Below: Captain Rose Maaney reaches second on a steal with time to spare. Her speed and slapping skills from the left batter's box made her an impeccable lead off batter.

THE 2013 SOFTBALL SEASON was one like no other. After losing a valuable senior class, we had big shoes to fill, but we gladly stepped up to the plate (pun intended). Our season started off strong and after dominating our first few games, we were ready for stronger competition. We had a habit of coming up big towards the sixth and seventh innings, such as when we beat Tounton at home in our last out bats.

Extra innings were a recurring theme throughout the season, our toughest match-up being Milford. Through eleven innings, we battled with the number one team in the state. Finally, Meg Wynn came up clutch with a huge RBI, bringing Megan Calleron home, and our solid defense preserved the shutout, earning us our best W of the season and Milford's first loss in two years.

We can credit this year's successful 15-5 season to the depth, dedication, and versatility displayed by every player on the team. Whether she started each game or not, every girl supported each other and was a huge asset to the team. Taco Tuesdays, country music, and hunts for four leaf clovers kept the season interesting and memorable. We were a "stone-cold pack of weirdos" who bonded during pre-practice sing-a-longs, loud bus rides, and Bridesmaid reenactments. Even though the season ended too soon and we suffered a few disappointing losses, our spirits remained high and we battled until the end. We are honored to be a part of a team as awesome as this one and we wish you the best of luck in the future... Beat KP and SQUAD UP!

Love, your coptains,
Meg Wynn and Rose Mooney!

Left: Senior Sam Moody tracks a fly ball with ease. Off season play and many years of experience add to Moody's finesse in the outfield.

BASEBALL

Left: Senior Sam Vinciguerra sneaks over toward second base to try to pick off a runner. Sam will be playing for Westfield next year. Go Owls!

Below: Captain Matt Hardy takes a swing. Hardy came up clutch when it counted, throwing out the game tying runner at third base in an elimination game versus rival Attleboro.

AS THE TEAM EMBARKED on its journey, we had high hopes with a first year coach and a young team behind him; the season started off with a bang with two big wins by a substantial margin. As the next eight games unraveled, we ended the first half of the season 3-7. With only an 18 game schedule, we needed nine wins to make it to tournament. We had a lot of ground to make up in the standings if we wanted to keep our hopes alive. We finished the last half of the season going 4-2, with two big wins over top-seeded Franklin and also top-seeded Sharon. We had two games left against rivals Attleboro and Feehan. We started the first game off with an extra inning battle against Attleboro, winning in 10 innings. As the last game of the season rolled around, it was a must-win game under the lights at Community. We won 11-2, springing our way into the tournament. The 2013 baseball season ended 9-9 with tournament hopes still alive. NO DOUBLES.

Your Captains, Matt Hardy and Jake Dallaire.

GIRLS LACROSSE

Keep Calm and Lax On

Right: Erica LaFond scans the field for a pass while keeping possession of the ball. A defender in soccer and lacrosse, this three year varsity athlete is rock solid!

Below: Sam Moul dodges Bellingham defenders to move the ball down the field. Her winter seasons on the track team give her an extra boost of speed and endurance on the lax field.

THE SEASON HAD A COLD AND SNOWY start. After having captains' practice and tryouts primarily indoors, we were ecstatic to finally get outside and start our season. After only losing four seniors, the fifteen remaining varsity players were already familiar with each other's style of play and excited to get back together as a team.

This year's lacrosse team was a younger group than past years, carrying 11 upperclassmen and 24 underclassmen. Our record does not reflect our hard work and efforts and we did double our wins from last year. Even with some rough losses, we kept our spirits high and grew together as a team.

We had many great memories to add to this unforgettable season. From pizza and pasta dinners to interesting back of the bus conversations, we built friendships we can take with us beyond high school. We also added a couple new additions to the lacrosse family this year to help improve our program. Coach Kelleher joined the lax crew to help coach the JV team and keep us, crazy teenagers, in line. Also we gained a new number one fan, Coach Sullivan's little baby, Tammy, who attended many games. As the seniors graduate we hope for the very best for the team! We hope they continue to improve and eventually be the first team to make it to tournament. We know that next year's captains will lead this team to success. The seniors will miss everyone next year and wish the 2014 lacrosse team the best of luck!

Love, your captains,
Rebecca Leavitt and Carly Ebzery

Left: Laura Patruno prepares for a draw against opponent King Philip. This year she was recognized as a Hockomock All-Star for her aggressive play.

BOYS LACROSSE

Backup wins championships

Left: Sophomore Teddy Nolan battles for the ball. Teddy's cross country season gave him endurance to be able to log many minutes on the field.

Below: A group of North players fight for possession of the ball. North's swarming defense allowed them to win many games this season.

AS THE LACROSSE SEASON EMBARKED we had high hopes. With a young goalie, Pat Kimball, same key injuries including James Kummer, and a need for underclassmen to step up, our team was underestimated. Tyler Sellner, Reid Halden, and Cadi Mareau were back for another season leading the midfield. Team leading scorers Sean Young and Tyler Zarembovitz were back for another year to shred the opposing team's defense. Our defense, led by Hack All-star Connor Mastropoll along with sophomore Marshall Blackman and Kyle Rodriguez, would need to step up their play this year.

The season began with a 13-0 rout of Bellingham. After two overtime losses and a tough stretch of games, we had a mid season record of 2-5 with our only other win over Oliver Ames. Backs against the wall and needing to win six of our last nine, we had Milford. After a huge overtime win, our "maja" was back. We then won three key games to get to a positive record at 6 and 5. As we entered the game against arch rival Mansfield we had all the momentum. After the dust settled, we came out with a hard fought 9-7 win that set another precedent, with our first win over Mansfield in the team's history. After a win vs Bellingham, we dumped the ceremonial jug of water on Coach Young as we clinched our first playoff berth in team history.

At 8-8 we entered the tournament, a hard-fought season behind us. Ranked 31 of 32, we would face number 2 Milford to prove our worth in the state. We know no matter the outcome, we would be proud of the effort and dedication our team showed in the long hours out at Pettie Field. We wish the team luck in the future, and hope they continue the legacy we left behind.

BOYS TENNIS

Drop the bass!

AFTER MONTHS OF PRACTICE in the off-season, the Boys Tennis team entered the season with a lot of new faces in the varsity line-up. Sophomore Anthony Rinaldi, Senior Captain Ethon Reddington, and Sophomore Kumail Alikhon copped off the singles lineup. Senior Coptoin Mukundh Noir, Senior Brion Brighom, Freshmon Mitchell Dyer, and Junior Connor Roberts were all in the doubles mix this year. These seven players along with the rest of the team fought hard throughout the whole season to finish with an 11-7 record and a state playoff berth.

With early matches against competitive teams such as Canton, Taunton, and Oliver Ames, we had to hit the ground running. After the first half of the season we were a respectable 6-3, with a huge win against rival Franklin at home, 3-2. We were in the Hockomock title hunt the whole season, until we suffered multiple close 3-2 losses to Monsfield, King Philip, and Franklin. Although we are disappointed by coming up short of first place, we are proud of the winning season we put together. This year's team proved that hard work and determination will produce success.

-Captains Ethon Reddington and Mukundh Noir

GIRLS TENNIS

"When you're ready come and get it!"

Left: Senior Sorabeth Parent follows through on her backhand. Being a left-handed player gives her a great advantage on the court and has earned her a spot on the varsity roster since freshman year.

Below: Captain Jamie Grinovic returns a serve with impressive force. Grinovic has been the team's number one singles player for three years due to her off season preparations and determination.

THE 2013 SEASON for the Girls Tennis team was certainly one for the books. Going into the season, we were confident as we returned the whole varsity line-up and maintained depth with a strong JV team as well.

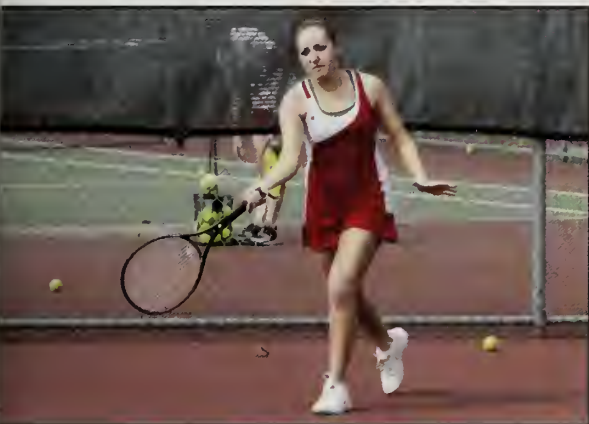

Throughout the season, the team grew closer and team chemistry amounted to an all-time high. The intimate bus talks, pasta dinners and singing at the top of our lungs to music on the courts definitely translated well on match days. We accomplished our goal of being undefeated Hockomock champions with a record of 20-0! Some highlights include a victory against the very challenging Foxboro, with a nail biter win by Kelly O'Neill and clinching the undefeated season at Milford.

The five seniors could not have asked for a better team to end our high school careers with, and we know the NAHS girls tennis team will always be destined for success with the spirit of the 2013 season kept alive!

Love, your captains,
Jamie Grinovic and Nicole Hauer

GIRLS SPRING TRACK

"Don't wish for it, work for it!"

Left: Captain Sydney Bennett makes her spring debut in the 100 meter relay after recovering from a serious injury in the fall. Despite this setback, she pushed the team to new heights and still managed to state qualify in shotput! Go Syd!

Below: Captain Meg Mullen excels over her first hurdle in the 100 meter hurdles. Her strong work ethic and four years of hurdle experience make her a great leader on the team.

BEFORE THE 2013 SPRING TRACK

SEASON, our expectations were a little low due to the loss of an amazing senior class. However, the season opened with a confidence boosting meet versus Taunton. This meet showed the true depth of the team scoring over a hundred points in just one meet. The score showed that the members of this team weren't ready to give up. Throughout this season, after many long practices, the number of personal bests increased every meet. Twenty-two girls qualified this season and participated in this year's state meet. The underclassmen came into the season with something to prove, and they did just that. These girls gave us the confidence that the program would continue to grow stronger in the upcoming years. The team placed second overall at the Hockomock League Championship Meet, which is one of the toughest leagues in the entire state. This team and its individuals truly represented what it takes to be a North Attleboro athlete. "If you want it don't wish for it, work for it." Best of luck next season!

Love, your captains

Sydney Bennett, Megon Ronoghon, and Meghan Mullen.

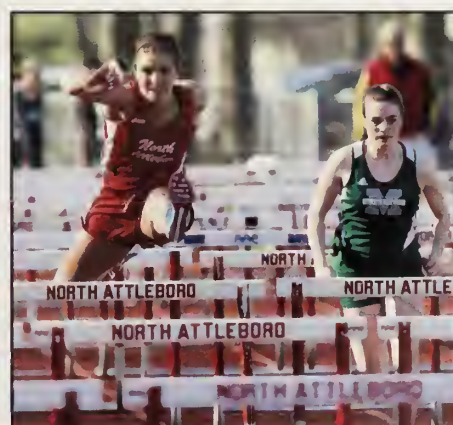

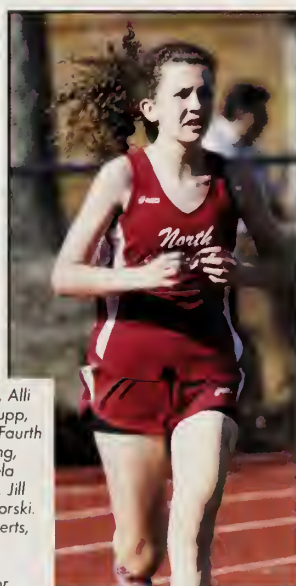

Far Left: Katherine Laughnane leads the pack in the one mile as they head into their final lap. This mid-distance runner stretched her endurance levels, allowing her to score big points in the mile this year.

Left: Senior Hannah McCarthy digs deep for a first place finish in the 400 meter hurdles. McCarthy always puts the team before herself and ran arguably the toughest race, 400 meter hurdles, whenever they needed her to do so.

Below: Steph Dubuc breezes through the 100 meter hurdles, leaving Mansfield behind. An All-State qualifier as a sophomore, Dubuc rocked the Hockomock League this year and has a promising track future ahead of her.

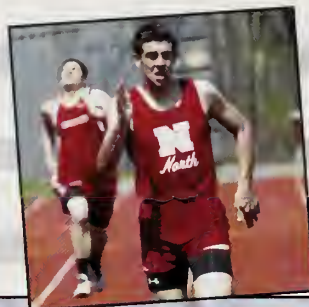

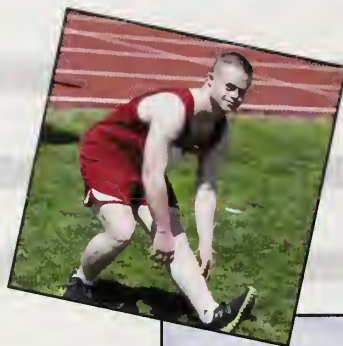

First Row: Sydney Bennett, Meg Mullen, Meg Ranaghan. Second Row: Coach Holster, Hannah McCarthy, Alli Arrigno, Alida Lefebvre, Gwyn Tacchi, Morgan Keion Nicole Grambley, Seana Reed. Left: Junior Jake McKinnan comes to the final hurdle in his 400m race. McKinnan is a very versatile athlete, qualifying for states in the 110m and 400m hurdles, the open 400m, long jump, triple jump, and the 4x4 relay.

Below: Captain AJ Sarkis glides over a hurdle. Sarkis' hard work led him to his first ever medal at states, a sixth place in the 110m Hurdles.

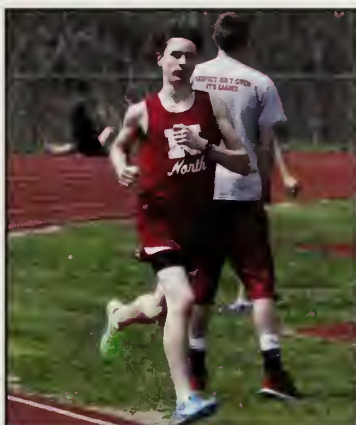

THIS SEASON THE TRACK & FIELD team showed not only the Hockomock League, but the entire state, that they were a high caliber team with great athletes both on and off the track. The boys went undefeated this season for the first time in ten years and won the Hockomock title. Our next victory was at the League meet in which the team once again showed their strengths in a grudge match against Mansfield. In the end the meet came down to the 4 x 8. Winning by one and a half points, we walked away with the title of League Champions.

When it came down to the state competition, our boys stepped up the intensity and the track team ended up finishing the State Relays meet in a close second place to Reading. In one of the final meets of the season, the team arrived at the DII State Championship meet and after fierce competition the boys pulled away with an impressive win.

Being able to call ourselves the co-opts of this year's team is an honor for us. We are so proud of the effort and hard work that our coaches and teammates have put into this season. Best of luck next season.

Left: Junior Ian Flanagan digs deep to finish his race. Ian was clutch all year, especially in the Mansfield meet where he picked up a third place in the two mile to clinch a victory.

Below: Junior Mike Kelleher runs the mile. Kelleher is highly respected by his teammates and hopes to have a good senior year.

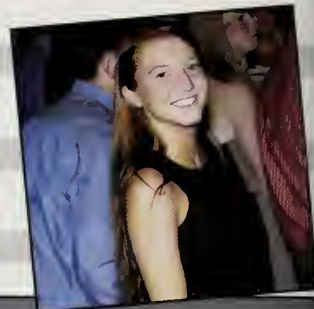

Far Left: Senior Ben Jette clears a hurdle in the State meet. Jette was a top 10 hurdler in Division 2 and second in the Hack after just three seasons of hurdling.

Left: Captain George Bradley sets the pace in the two mile. Bradley was a great leader on and off the track.

Below: Jackie Del Bonis, Ben Jette, Rose Mooney, and AJ Sarkis receive the MIAA Community Service Awards. These four were honored at an event in Boston for their athletic and student achievements.

THE 92nd ANNUAL Fisher Kelley Bonquet was held inside the Judith E. Cobb Theater on Tuesday, May 21, 2013. The Class of 2013 showed off on impressive one hundred and forty-three athletes who were all recognized for their dedication to athletics during their senior year. Although our dear friend "Mitch" was not available to facilitate the event due to sickness, we were lucky enough to have great coaches to keep the night moving.

Our Superintendent, Mrs. Cullen, started the night off with a warm welcome and some opening remarks. She was followed by science teacher and coach Mr. Geoffrey Burgess who read a comprehensive Fisher-Kelley history. The night continued with the handing out of multiple awards, including the MIAA Community Service Awards by Coach Bill Wolloche, the Liberty Mutual Responsible Sports Awards by Coach Koren Falan, the Scholar Athletes Awards by teacher and coach Erin McDovitt, and the MIAA Sportsmanship Awards by Coach Burgess. Coach Herber took over next with the presentation of Senior Awards. The evening ended with the presentation of the Daniel M. DeYoung and the Maurice D. Grant Awards to George Brodley and Honniah McCorthy.

Left: Mr. Burgess reads the History of Fisher Kelley. Although Mitch could not make this year's banquet, Mr. Burgess did a great job stepping up to the plate.

Homecoming Rally

North Attleboro's Kenneth Pickering gymnasium was home to another successful Homecoming Rally in 2012. All day long, each class dressed up and decorated its hallways in their respective class colors to spark a little more competition between them. The tension in the air that was rising all day reached its peak when the announcement finally came for the classes to begin filing down to the gymnasium, harassed by the seniors, aided in no small part by Eddy Lonzo breaking out the gong. The rally went smoothly with some great performances by the teachers in the Musical Chairs competition, in which teachers participated for the first time, and the seniors who, yet again, dominated in the Tug-of-War competition. The school also welcomed some of its alumni so that they could see how the tradition has carried on since their years at NAHS. Some say that seniors were robbed of the Most Rowdy competition by Mr. Kummer's iPhone app. Regardless, the rally was a hit that many seniors will look back on and be proud to have been a part of.

-Harrison Carmichael

Thanksgiving Rally

As it is every year, the Thanksgiving Rally this year at NAHS was truly something special. The rally always manages to be a bit bittersweet for seniors, especially for the senior football players and cheerleaders who have been waiting and working to see their faces up on the slide show, only to realize that this was the last Thanksgiving game in which they will participate. I think I can speak for all the seniors when I say that the rally could never be as great as it is without the help of Mr. Rizzo and the band, Mr. Carl Mitchell, Mr. Kummer, Mr. Holcomb, the cheerleaders, and all of the class officers who help make it such a great production every year. Seeing our friends' faces and baby pictures up on the slide show in that gym is a great memory that will last a long time, & a huge 38-14 win over Attleboro for the Red Rocketeers football team to close out the season makes the memory even sweeter as we managed to keep Hilda home for one more year.

Powderpuff

THIS YEAR, THE SENIOR SHARKS and the Junior Jets faced off on Monday, November 12, for the annual Powderpuff game. After the game was postponed on October 14, the players had an extra month to build up their nerves and excitement. Right off the bat it did not look good for the seniors. During warm ups, the Sharks suffered a significant loss when offensive star Sydney Bennett went out with a torn ACL. Playing in Sydney's honor, the Senior Sharks kicked off to the Junior Jets, who ran all the way for a touchdown, taking control of the scoreboard. This was a wake-up call for the seniors, who immediately responded with the next touchdown. Each of the senior touchdowns was celebrated with a different celebratory dance, including fishing, bowling, and the leg cramp; a special tribute to the football boys. In the end, the seniors came out victorious with a final score of 26-14. It is safe to say that this year the game was played fairly. Each team played hard and sportsmanship was not forgotten, making it an enjoyable game to participate in.

Homecoming Dance

2012 marked the second year of the Homecoming Dance after its return last year, and it turned out to be an even bigger success. Students from every class showed up in their semi-formal best to first greet their friends in the lobby, where the efforts of the Student Council were evident in the beautiful decorations. While the girls ditched their high-heels on the stairs, others made their way to the dance floor to put in their requests to the DJ, whose interesting hat choice did not go unnoticed, and began showing off their moves to popular songs like "Gangnam Style." This year, students were able to vote their peers into the Homecoming Court at the dance, and it was truly endearing to see everyone cheer their classmates on as they wove their way through the crowd to accept their bouquets and crowns. The festivities continued until ten o'clock, at which point everyone reluctantly left the dance floor with tired feet, smiles on their faces, and memories to last a lifetime.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

THE NORTH ATTLEBORO CHAPTER of the National Honor Society inducts its members selectively on the basis of scholarship, leadership, and service, as determined by a faculty panel. The organization expects all members to function as leaders and role models throughout the school and within the greater North Attleboro community. During the school year, students are obligated to complete at least twenty hours of community service. This school year, members dedicated more than 1,200 hours giving back to the community, serving in such roles as tutors, coaches, volunteers at the Special Olympics, camp leaders, Faith Formation teachers, nursing home and hospital workers, Relay for Life captains and scribes for students with writing challenges. The National Honor Society each year sponsors several events, including its major fund-raiser, the annual Craft Fair every November. Beyond the volunteer commitment, students are expected to embody and preserve the characteristics for which they have been selected to this esteemed society – honesty, sacrifice, scholarship, respect, kindness, and commitment.

SCAR

The Student Coalition Against Racism strives to end all forms of hatred in our school, specifically those connected to bullying. Together, we discuss how we can all make a greater effort to stop bullying and racist comments. Our monthly meetings are dedicated to deepening people's understanding of how our words and actions can have a lasting effect on others and raising awareness on how to spot signs of bullying or hate-speech at school. Our goal is to make the school a safe learning environment for all who study here.

SADD

This group mainly examines the destructive decisions students can make and ways we can avoid them. We inform students of the possible dangers of bullying, drugs and alcohol and the lasting damage they can do. We had monthly meetings during which several guest speakers came this year, including Tom Hermanowsky, an ex-football player from Syracuse University, whose life and career were destroyed by substance abuse. His message hit home, making everyone realize just how important it is to stay on the right track and make good decisions in high school and in life.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council is responsible for raising money for our school in order to make a better place to learn. We also try to improve our community by hosting several fundraisers and charity events throughout the year. Our annual Blood Drive for the American Red Cross was very successful this year. Together, we collected enough blood to save over 300 lives. It's fun to be part of a group that makes such a difference to our school and our town.

SCHOOL COUNCIL

The School Council is a small, core group of seniors and juniors who take pride in the school they attend. Every month, we join a group of parents and faculty in the Martin Room, along with Mr. Holcomb, to discuss any issues we have around the school. We share ideas and come up with solutions to solve these problems in an effort to make our school even better. Mr. Holcomb then takes these ideas and implements them into daily life at the school, which is almost as rewarding as the pizza we eat at each meeting!

MORNING ANNOUNCEMENTS

"Gooooood morning!" was the first phrase students could expect to hear on the morning announcements this year, as Sarah Leary woke students up with her cheery attitude. She and her co-anchor, Reid Holden, volunteered to make the commitment of arriving early each day to keep students at NAHS informed about various things going on in our school. Reid's spirited sign off, "Go Big Red" will surely be missed next year.

BEST PALS

Best Pals consists of a group of students who volunteer their time during school to work with students with special needs. We help them learn life skills that they will need to be able to move on to the 12+ program by taking them into the community to work on projects that are both fun and educational. This year the kids have become so advanced that we are able to bring them out of school three times a week! It is so rewarding to help the kids and see them grow. We participate in events such as bake sales, gift wrapping, and the car fair, but our biggest event of the year is the Special Olympics. The kids train hard for months and it's a really exciting day for them! The group is led by Mrs. Mitchell and Mr. Palmieri and it is truly an incredible program to be a part of.

PROJECT UNITE

Project Unite is a group made up of students from North Attleboro, Attleboro and Bishop Feehan High School. This group plans the indoor and field Special Olympics, which has been the largest Day Games event in the area with over 600 athletes last year. This year we raised over $11,000 during the annual Project Plunge and won two awards at the fundraiser: the Cool School Award and the Gold Plunger Award, both of which are a high honor. We also won the MIAA Community Service award for student clubs and organizations for exemplary involvement and support in our community.

-Jackie Del Banis

LEO CLUB

Leo Club, led by Mr. Ames, is a community service group dedicated to helping out in North Attleboro. Each semester, club members branch off into smaller groups and partake in individual projects. Some choose to paint the walls of our school, others set out to clean up a park, or put together a larger fundraiser such as Christmas Is For Kids. This year, Leo Club was especially successful due to its overwhelming size of about one hundred students, making it one of the largest clubs at NAHS.

PEER LEADERS

Peer Leaders is a group of motivated students interested in getting involved in the community outside of school. We hope to set an example among our peers by taking an interest in our town and giving back as much as we can. In past years, we have been involved in community service projects such as reading or looking for the elderly, donating food to needy families, gift wrapping, and painting the school. Participating in this group is an excellent way to have fun with friends while helping out those in need.

YOUTH EMPOWERMENT

Youth Empowerment is about being yourself and exploring different ideas and social issues in an open, supportive environment. It is a group that breaks down social barriers and connects students through community, service, group activities, and informative discussions. Together we have collected Christmas items and goods for the soldiers in the Middle East and teddy bears for the Newtown, Connecticut shooting victims.

GAY-STRAIGHT ALLIANCE

Building Bridges Gay-Straight Alliance is a group that spreads awareness and supports the gay and lesbian community within our school. We aim to erase prejudice and stop the hate that can come from being "out" in high school. We recently had a student from Bridgewater come to speak to us about how it gets better and will be better for the LGBTQ youth as society is rapidly changing. We also sell alliance bracelets at lunch so that any student, regardless of sexual orientation, will know that it is okay to embrace who you are at NAHS.

YOUTH ALIVE

Youth Alive is a prayer group that provides students with a place to comfortably share their faith. It is about Christian students coming together to discuss their beliefs in a safe environment and exchange ideas with other students who share similar values. We offer support for one another both in and outside of meetings, and we believe we have grown in spirit and in our faith because of it.

ENVIRONMENTAL CLUB

The Environmental Club works to educate others on the importance of their surroundings. We come up with new ideas to be more eco-friendly and we will be helping out with the North Attleboro Beautification Project. Presently, our goal is to assist with the community garden started by the middle school.

MULTI-CULTURAL CLUB

The Multi-Cultural Club began last year as an advancement in knowledge and appreciation for other cultures. We host a meeting every month focused on a specific country or culture and explore the customs practiced there. Most people host meetings based on their respective heritage, and many bring in typical dishes or games for the rest of the group to enjoy.

CAREER CLUB

Career Club is meant to show students what life is like once they leave high school. We have people from different careers come in and tell us about how they became the people they are today. We've had some amazing guests this year, such as Chef Allen, who works at Eagle Brook Saloon, Mr. O'Grady, who is a Regional Manager at Waste Management, Mr. Barenthaler, who is a small business owner in North Attleboro, and Mrs. Mirza, who is a scientist. We have hopefully been able to show students a few choices of what life can be like once they leave high school.

DEBATE CLUB

With the help of our coach, Ms Dennen, the Debate Team teaches students public speaking and argument-creating skills. We have held countless debates on current topics throughout the year and spent a lot of time researching topics, writing speeches, and thinking on our feet responding to arguments. We competed in our first tournament, the Massachusetts Forensics League this year. At the tournament, we debated President Obama's health care reform bill and were very successful.

YOUNG REPUBLICANS

This year, the Young Republicans were especially busy with the 2012 election. We went to a rally for Scott Brown and made calls for just about every Republican campaign in the area. We also helped out with events like Betty Pomer's charity dinner. At meetings, we generally discuss current events and share our ideas on what is going on in America. Many of us plan and hope to go into politics in the future.

YOUNG DEMOCRATS

This group is comprised of liberal students associated with the Democratic Party. We come together to talk about ways we can become involved with politics in our town and in America. This year, with the election being a crucial topic of discussion, we talked about ways we could support Elizabeth Warren and help with her campaign. Although we identify with the same party, we still debate our varying standpoints on issues in politics and the world at meetings as well.

MATH LEAGUE

The Math League meets once a month to do six challenging math problems individually. The top 5 scores, the recipients of which are posted monthly in the math hallway, are added up and this total score competes with other schools in the region. We came in second place in Bristol County this year, behind Mansfield. Essentially, we just focus on improving our math skills and challenging ourselves because math is something we all enjoy!

CHESS CLUB

And it's back! After a brief hiatus last year, Chess Club is back and bigger than ever. Suddenly, a whole bunch of kids became really interested in chess again, so all of us meet with Mr. Herber every other week to compete against each other. Although it's just for fun, we make brackets so that everyone is being challenged as they should be.

SCIENCE FAIR

With this club comes a huge commitment. A small group of students with a passion and aptitude for science sign up for the annual fair in February, promising that they will stick with the enormous task that lies ahead. Each student must select an experiment to perform that is also designed to challenge the student and possibly aid the future of science. Students work hard over the course of the next few months to make their project presentable for the fair, and some go on to regional and State competitions, which is quite an honor.

-Jackson Riseman

Science Club is for any kid who has an interest in science and wants to spend extra time after school learning about different scientific principals or performing experiments. Led by Jess Chien, George Bradley and Sarah Caruso, we carried out various procedures having to do with physics and chemistry. I think we all really enjoyed watching George show us his skills with pyrotechnics, too!

GYM LEADERS

This year's Gym Leaders were a really great group of athletes and students alike. The point of having leaders for gym class is not only to teach underclassmen the rules of the games, but also to set an example of sportsmanship and encourage students to enjoy physical activity. Some seniors enjoy this job so much that they sign up to be leaders for both semesters, sometimes having gym twice a day.

MEDIA CLUB

Under the guidance of Liz Elia, the Media Club is designed to explore and discover various types of media and its present and future uses in our culture. Founded by Kelly O'Neill and Dan Dyer, the Media Club meets every other week to talk about current events, TV, film, and other mass media. We also engage in media-related games and watch SNL skits. Some of our discussions include Facebook, Twitter, icons, SNL commercials, award shows, and much more. As a relatively new club, we plan to take various news studios and invite guest speakers.

-Kelly O'Neill

ANIME CLUB

Anime Club is dedicated to celebrating anime, videogames, films, and many other aspects of Japanese culture. Our meetings are free-form: some of us draw anime characters, work on our own anime books, or watch films and discuss them. We do everything we can to explore and learn more about this distant culture. This year, we hope to attend the Anime Boston Convention, like in previous years, as it is a great way to meet people who share an interest in Japanese culture as well!

GALADRIEL

Galadriel is the school's art and literary magazine. We collect submissions throughout the year and put together a magazine full of art, poetry, prose, and photography. During a regular meeting, we read the most current submissions, discuss them and rate them all while laughing and eating sweets! Later when we have to make decisions about which submissions will make it into the magazine, we consult our ratings and make the tough but necessary decisions needed to put together a successful magazine!

ART CLUB

This year's art club helped out tremendously. We prepared work for the Fall Art Show, from which the proceeds went to a great cause. We also assisted select students with a group project, a giant hand making a hand, for the regional High Art competition. Our hard work paid off because we came in first place, earning lots of recognition for the art department at NAHS. We also played a huge role in the Fine Arts Festival, from setting up boards to tacking up art and creating and showcasing our own art. I think it's safe to say that the art club this year was involved like no other before.

PHOTOGRAPHY CLUB

Under the direction of Mr. Flanagan and Quinn Scanlan, the member of the group, we learn the function of different parts of the camera and how we can adjust them to take different pictures. We talk about various kinds of photography and learn how to take pictures in new ways. Each week or so, we are given an assignment to take pictures of subjects ranging from people to still objects to architecture and post our photos on the group's blog to share at the next meeting.

YEARBOOK

This year, the 2013 Northern Light acquired a smaller, more specific staff to assist the editors with the publication of the yearbook. The success of this book would not have been possible without the help of those who dedicated their time during class to organize the photo shoot for club pictures or those who let the editors drag them into the office to identify people. We even had members of our staff come into school on a day off to pose for pictures for the dividers, an artistic feat that we couldn't have accomplished without them! The yearbook Staff definitely worked their keep this year and will hopefully be proud to say that they had a hand in making this yearbook special.

PEP BAND

Pep Band is a group that begins in the summer and is made up of grades 8-12. It's a chance for people who have never played an instrument to join a music group as color guard or drum line and get to play with other musicians at different levels. Though rehearsing is great fun, the real memories come from the football games. Pep Band is a chance to showcase contemporary songs in a lively and impulsive manner, coinciding with the football game actions and cheerleaders. This trio of energy pumps up a crowd, and without one of us, the game wouldn't be the same. It's a rush of adrenaline when the band gets to play their field show at half-time, and even more when the football team wins the game and the band plays the school's fight song, "Our Boys." Pep Band has and always will be there to pump up the crowd while bringing wonderful music to the excited environment of a football game.

THEATRE COMPANY

The theatre at NAHS is home to kids who have a passion for it, whether be performing on stage or working behind the scenes. This year, the Company pulled off three hugely successful shows ranging from a murder mystery to self-written plays to a comedic musical. I speak on behalf of the entire executive board when I say that this year's group has talent to spare.

INTERNATIONAL THESPIAN SOCIETY

The International Thespian Society recognizes high school students who have performed 100 excellent hours of work both on and off stage. It is not an easy feat to accomplish, and this year's select group felt particularly honored to be members of such an acclaimed organization.

FALL PLAY

The Theatre Company kicked off the season this November with "The Mousetrap," a murder mystery set in 1950's England, written by the acclaimed author, Agatha Christie. The show began on a high note with authentic British accents and dynamic relationship between Daniel Kiely and Marie Turnier and continued to excite the audience with electric performances from theatre veteran Thomas Penhagill, who played a deranged architect-gone-prime-murder-suspect, and Daniel Dyer, whose chilling role of a killer disguised as a police officer left audience members shocked. We also discovered some new talent on this show with Stephen Kiely and Jessica Kelley, both of whom played excellent oddball guests at the manor. Though the accents and the foreign dialect were challenging, it was fun for the whole cast to experience a different time in a different place in a way that only starring in a theatre production could allow. It was an excellent way to start our year together, and an even better way for me to spend my last fall show with NAHSTC.

ONE ACTS

The 40th Annual One-Act Play Festival, featuring the student directed plays, took place on January 19, 7:00 p.m. in the Cobb Theater. The plays performed were "Razor's Edge", an edgy drama written by Nicholas Regan and directed by him and Tom Pettengill, "Mirror, Mirror", a fairytale spoof written by Bruce Kane and directed by Margaret Loring and Stephanie Kane, and "Tracks", a drama about afterlife written by Peter Tarsi and directed by Nicholas and Isabel Samuel. Dan Kiely of "Razor's Edge" and Brianna Arrighi of "Tracks" won the Best Actor and Actress awards. "Mirror, Mirror" won Best Play and Nicholas Samuel won Best Director.

-Nicholas Samuel

SPRING MUSICAL

The 25th Annual Putnam County Spelling Bee is a modern musical about six quirky spellers, a man on parole, a Vice Principal that pines over the moderator, and a former spelling bee champion that now runs the Spelling Bee. With each word comes a new set of nerves for the kids, and as the pressure becomes too much, contestants start to be eliminated. The show itself is unique; it gets the whole audience involved right on stage with the featured spellers. Through all the hardships the Spelling Bee brought, the characters overcame many fears and found friendships along the way, showing how one spelling Bee can change so much.

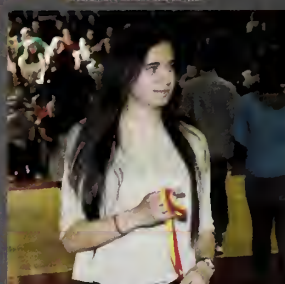

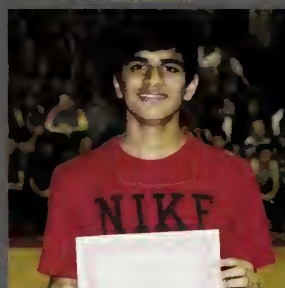

-Sydney Lambert

NHS Award Ceremony

On May 16th 2013, the Annual National Honor Society Award Ceremony recognized achievement in academics at NAHS. Students received awards in subjects ranging from Art to Science to English, with students from all grades meriting excellence in their respective courses. It's a wonderful ceremony that shows just how great the students at North really are.

Field Trips!

This year's theme, "Get on Board", revolves around Big Red and the places it takes us, so we thought it was fitting to include a page dedicated to some of our travels this year. As you can see, Big Red pride spreads far beyond the town's borders on field trips to Providence with AP Spanish, the Zoo with Bio II, and Six Flags with Physics and AP Chem.

Mr. NAHS

This year's Mr. NAHS show, hosted by Hannah McCarthy and Rose Mooney, was held on March 28, 2013. The eight contestants showed off their fabulous dance moves in the opening act, thanks to the help of choreographer Erin Crosman. Following the dance, all contestants and their escorts modeled their sleepwear and formal wear. After the Q&A session, the real show began with the contestants performing their pronounced talents. AJ Sarkis earned the title of the 2013 Mr. NAHS winner after his "Little Act with Big Moves" won the crowd over. Tweets with the #MrNAHS were also read in order to entertain the audience. The show was a huge success thanks to the hard work and help of the class officers, advisers, and many volunteers.

The Mr. NAHS cast and crew express their happiness with the success of this year's show while pointing to Mr. Herber, the senior class adviser who helped organize this hilarious annual event.

AJ Sarkis shows off his extreme dance moves in his skit "Little Act with Big Moves". His act brought the crowd to tears of laughter.

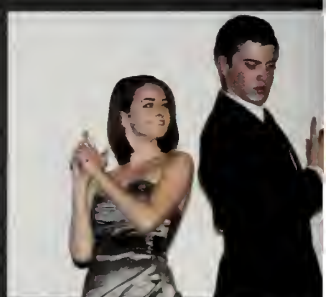

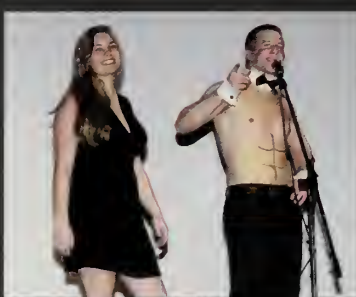

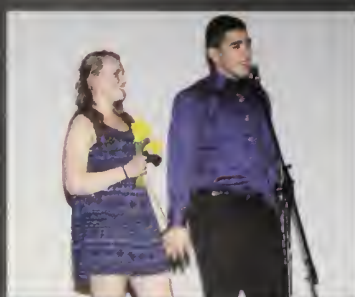

Wes Dunham was the pirate king of the night. His skit showed off his truly talented singing voice.

Nick Regan, Charlie Amaya, and Tom Eustis eagerly await the outcome of the ballot count. All three of these boys entertained the school with their good humor, poetic talent, and hypnotic skill.

George Bradley tempts the crowd with his Daisy and sleeveless flannel. George, the man of many talents, was voted runner-up of the show.

AJ Sarkis takes a bow as he accepts the crown and wins the title of this year's Mr. NAHS. His good looks, slicker dance moves, and sense of humor made him a crowd favorite.

Sam Connelly makes a historical entrance in a mammoth costume, alongside escort Megan Ronaghan. His skit as a motivational speaker proved successful with the audience.

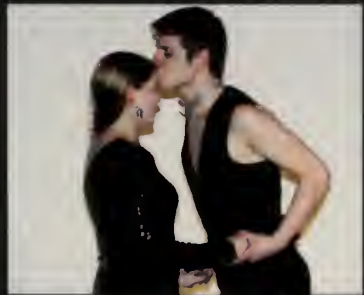

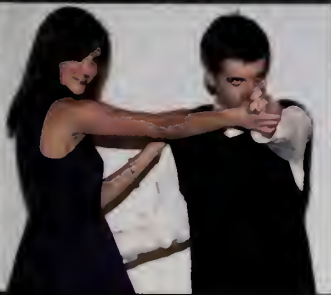

Jake sits with his "wife", Reid Holden, as Tom Eustis calls him up to be hypnotized. Reid revealed his feminine side throughout the show.

Reid Holden, Sam Connelly, and AJ Sarkis bust a move on stage. The boys perfected how to "drop it low" after hours of rehearsal and practicing.

Hannah McCarthy and Rose Mooney look gorgeous in their coordinated outfits. Their witty comments spiced up the show.

SENIOR PROM

On May 4, 2013, limos converged at White's of Westport, where students entered into "An Underwater Affair". The class of 2013's Senior Prom involved a great deal of planning, preparation, and hard work - all of which paid off. After last year's Junior Prom, the seniors learned a few things about how to plan a prom (good food, for example). Dozens of people helped make it happen and they were all very proud of the end result. The night was a real blast; there was good food, good music, and a photo booth to help preserve the memories. After Eric Beckwith and Rose Mooney were crowned the prom king and queen, the night kicked off with some fabulous dancing. It was an evening that will not be forgotten.

-Tom Pettengill

The prom court, consisting of Eric Beckwith, Rose Mooney, Honnah McCarthy, A.J. Sorkis, Rachael Holmes, Tom Pettengill, Brianna Arrighi, George Bradley, Alido Lefebvre, and Dwayne Hunter, looks stunning in their dresses and tuxes. This year the court was voted on by the students themselves.

Mott Burke and Nicole Gilmore look great in red and their party hats. This year, the photo booth with its many accessories was a hit!

Amanda Rose, Julio St. Pierre, Jessico Chien, and Allison Ferrigno take a moment from the busy night to take a swim picture. These four have been through four years of swim together.

Stephonie Thompson, Brandon Moore, Robert Deforest III, and Natalie Tetrault pose together. The group had an amazing time at their last prom together.

Ethon Reddington and Brian Brigham flash the pearly whites at the camera. These two are going to be a couple.

Prom Queen Rose Mooney and Prom King Eric Eck with smile for the camera as they lead the first dance. Eric was crowned king for the second year in a row.

Rachel Gaumont, April Lafreniere, Ali D'Amico, and Hayley Gentile are having a blast on the dance floor. The DJ played all of the popular and favorite songs, keeping the crowd entertained the entire night.

Courtney Roguso, Katherine McGwin, Kaylo Meyer, Leo Aliberti, Josh Dorling, and Shuono Bullack pose for a quick picture before they get back on the dance floor. The girls look gorgeous in an array of colors.

Tom Sek, Nick Schroeder, and Tony Achin look dapper in their suit and ties. These boys had a lot of fun that night.

SENIOR PROM

Hope Crowley and Corn Burns look great all dressed up in their formal attire. They definitely had a great time on the dance floor.

Sarah Marrissey, Kelsey Martimore, Julio St.Pierre, and Haylee Nugent shuffle off the dance floor to pose for a picture. The girls looked stunning in their curls and sequined dresses.

Erin McEachern, Megan Ronaghan, and Morgan Kieon look great in their fancy prom dresses. These girls made sure their last high school prom was one to remember!

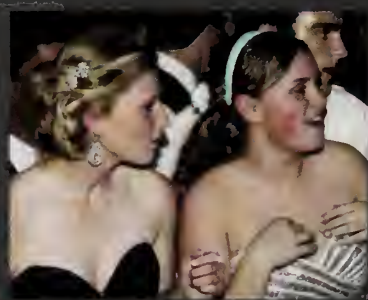

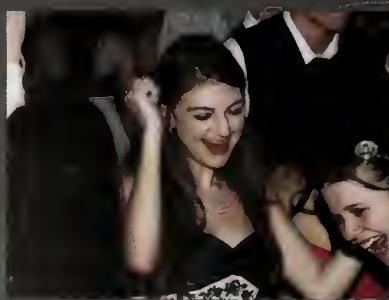

Kyle Grafton and Ariel Ferreira share a dance. The evening slowed down as prom came to an end.

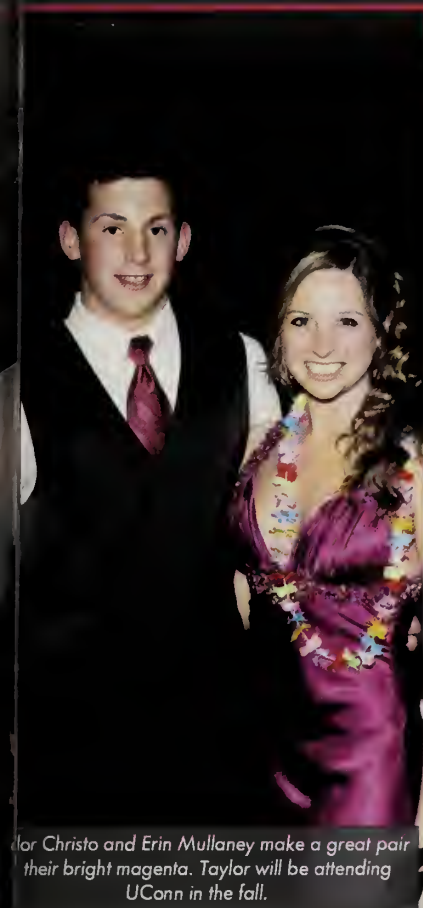

Anna Martin, Rose Mooney, Hayley Gentile, Meaghan McKenna, and Alli D'Amico give their prettiest smiles for the camera. These five best friends may be going off on their separate paths to college, but they will always stick together.

Brianna Arrighi and George Brodley show off their moves on the dance floor. Both Brianna and George were voted into the prom court.

For Christo and Erin Mullaney make a great pair in their bright magenta. Taylor will be attending UConn in the fall.

Emma Shapiro, Hannah McCarthy, Sarabeth Parent, Brooke Maher, and Nicole Gilmore stop for a picture before they hit the dance floor. These girls have been close friends since middle school.

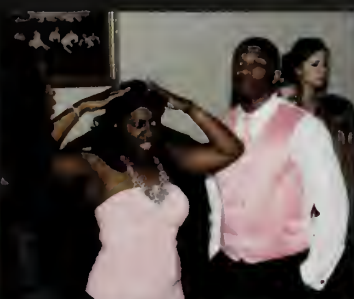

Rachael Holmes and Tom Pettengill smile as Tom hands the roses to Rachael. Both Rachael and Tom were a part of this year's prom court.

Here's the U-crew consisting of Ryan Burns, Dave Joyce, Jessica Chien, Seana Read, Ben Jette, Ben Hargrove, Mott Lougee, Ter Sellner, Tim Joyce, and Ryon Peterson. All of these individuals will be taking their talents to the University of Massachusetts Amherst in the fall. (along with Caroline Adler, Alida Lefebvre, Dave Brackman, Peter Kummer, and many more cool cats.)

Rachel Iaconis, Lauren Wonless, Julia Bogorella, and Nicole Hauer look stunning in their dresses. All four girls were on the varsity field hockey team this year.

CLASS HISTORY

FRESHMAN YEAR

2009 was a very busy year. There were pirates on the Somalian coast, Swine Flu in the US, and I got my braces on. But more significant to us, it was our freshman year. As freshmen, we stood tall and confident, expecting that we were prepared for everything. And, while we were prepared academically, we were not prepared for the changes to who we were as people and as a class that would ensue. We walked into high school feeling fine and swaggie, but really we were loud and boisterous. We were young, innocent, ready for a challenge, but still willing to have fun. We exemplified what it means to be a freshman; we were fresh to this school in a new building with new teachers, new rules and a new way of life. We were ready for a fresh start. Filled to the brim with ambition and energy, our freshman class was excited to exceed expectations. We worked and persevered to make our school proud. We aced the Bio MCAS, owned the football field, and made beautiful music. We were a class of hope and optimism. We were a class of dreamers and hard workers. And now, when we compare our freshman selves to our current selves, the difference is clear. We have all grown since then, and I can't wait to see where fate takes us next. Thank you.

JUNIOR YEAR

The fall of 2011 marked the beginning of a demanding year, including some of our first AP courses, varsity games, solos in the concert choir, and the dreaded SATs. We spread ourselves thin, in hopes of filling up those college applications because as everyone kept saying, "Junior year is the one that counts". Despite the frustration and pressures regarding our futures, we courageously journeyed up and down Landry Ave day after day and eventually came to realize that some of those extra-curriculars weren't so bad. In fact, we somehow managed to make time for our favorites and started to make a difference in those areas. Through our extensive involvement in school, the Class of 2013 really began to make our mark. We wowed the community with our individual talents and came together as an incredible class with an overload of spirit.

That year the class officers, Tam Pettengill, Reid Holden, Hannah McCarthy, and I, crushed the seniors in tug of war at the Homecoming Rally and the spectacular Junior Jets dominated the Powder Puff football game; however, the seniors "won" in overtime, like every year. Driving to school was a cool, new privilege, considering we were blessed with nice weather and an easy walk up from the junior lot. We brought back the Homecoming Dance and continued our Crush sales on Valentine's Day. Junior Pram, "The Land of Hearts", was held on a beautiful day... in March... at the Rhodes on the Pawtuxet. After sitting through numerous banquets and awards nights, we started to realize that we're a phenomenal group with infinite depth. The Class of 2013 managed an unfathomable workload at NAHS, but we had only just begun to scratch the surface of our potential and no one could have imagined the success we would achieve as seniors.

SOPHOMORE YEAR

Sophomore year was another stepping stone on our path to higher education. We were beginning to move up the chain of command—no longer the new kids on the block, but not yet upperclassmen. We voted Hannah McCarthy our president, Rose Mooney our vice president, Reid Holden our secretary, and Amanda Rose our treasurer. As sophomores we faced a lot of new challenges, including MCAS and our first attempts at the PSAT's. Our class fundraising included our second year of Minute to Win It and our Crush sales on Valentine's Day. Quite a few of us began to break out of our shells and demonstrate our skills as varsity players, leading actors, and featured artists. Whether it was in academics, athletics, or arts, we put our best foot forward, and thanks to our amazing teachers and coaches, we performed to the best of our ability. After a strong showing, we knew we would have a great deal to contribute in the next two years.

Reid Holden, Class Secretary

SENIOR YEAR

Our senior year came with the mixed emotions of excitement for the future and despair for the end of an era. With the realization that high school was soon coming to an end, the Class of 2013 strove to make the most of our final days here at North Attleboro. We elected Reid Holden as secretary, Tam Pettengill as treasurer, Rose Mooney as vice president, and Hannah McCarthy as president, who, with the help of class advisors Mrs. Violette and Mr. Herber, coordinated many memorable events of our senior year.

Despite the numerous stresses of standardized tests and college applications, our class continued to excel in the classroom, on the field, and on the stage. We were leaders and role models to the underclassmen because of our hard work and commitment to achieving success. We accepted the responsibility that came with many privileges of being at the top of the school's hierarchy, including the infamous senior lot and senior hallway.

Our class had many accomplishments throughout our four years here. This year, we dominated in the tug of war at the Thanksgiving rally for the second year in a row; we defeated the juniors in the Powder Puff football game, and we sold out what many called the most entertaining Mr. NAHS show.

As our last months of high school neared, we got dressed up and danced away the hours with our good friends at the Senior Picnic held at White's of Westport. As we say goodbye to the halls of North Attleboro High School, where we were molded into the young adults we are today, we remember and thank the teachers, coaches, and classmates who helped make these four years incredible. The legacy of the Class of 2013 does not end here, for tomorrow brings the beginning of new challenges and the promise of success in the future.

SENIOR COOKOUT

Matt Hardy throws a bean bag as he tries to score the winning toss. The bean bag toss was one of the many fun games present at the cookout.

Anna Martin, Jenn Richman, Caroline Adler, Ariana Roy, and Jackie DelBonis smile as they enjoy each other's company at the final senior gathering.

The Senior Cookout was held on June 4, 2013. This year the senior class had excess money so they were able to get the cookout catered by Tex's BBQ. There were hamburgers, chicken, ribs, pasta salad, potato salad, and brownies for dessert. Along with the delicious food, there were many games for the students to play. The cookout was a great way to end the year as the members of the Class of 2013 celebrated graduation together.

-Hannah McCarthy

Gabby Sheridan, Dave Jayce, and Meghan Mullen pose for a picture to document the fun memories of the day. The Class of 2013 enjoyed spending their final days together.

Ben Horgrove slams the frisbee into the bin to win points during a game of KanJam. This game was a fan favorite at this year's cookout.

Nicole Haver, Hoylee Nugent, Liz Wallace, Meladie Hamilton, Lauren Wanless, and Sam Moody are all smiles at this year's cookout.

Thomas Pettengill, Hannah McCarthy, Reid Halden, and Rose Maaney pose with Mr. Herber. The senior class officers owe a lot of their success to the help of their advisors, Mr. Herber and Mrs. Vialette.

Ryon Kingsley shows off his soccer skills with a game of juggling at the Senior Cookout. Ryon will be taking his talent to Holy Cross next year.

INFORMAL CLASS DAY

On June 5th, while the rest of the students continued their monotonous school schedule, the senior class filed into the gymnasium with a leg up on their summer tans. The class officers spoke of their phenomenal classmates as they presented the class histories. Jessica Chien and Hannah McCarthy passed down the senior superlatives to the eager junior class and the remaining editors announced their replacements for next year. The seniors in the choir stole the show with their amazing performance of the song "It's Time" by Imagine Dragons. When the yearbook editors proudly announced the yearbook dedication to Mrs. Blake, there was not a dry eye in the room. The senior class voted on the dedication in December, when Mrs. Blake was still in school, which truly shows how much her presence was appreciated at NAHS. We finished the assembly with the senior slide show. Informal class day was successful and a great way to start the senior week!

-Rose Mooney

The class quote "Life has no limitations, except the ones you make," gave the class encouragement to pursue their many dreams. The quote was picked by the class officers.

Senior Class Officers Tam Pettingill, Reid Halden, Rose Maaney and Hannah McCarthy smile as they prepare to talk about the class history. These talented individuals are sure to be successful in years to come.

Nicole Rache and Manica Tynah laugh at a joke as they wait for the day's ceremony to begin.

Tim Joyce, Dave Joyce, Mike Manning, and Jan Cerrane are all smiles as they eagerly await graduation and the Stanley Cup Finals. Go Bruins!

Alley Harbour smiles at the podium as she announces next year's yearbook editors. Alley juggles her extracurricular activities throughout the school year but always maintains her straight A's.

Kory Senechal smiles as he walks to his seat at the assembly. This will be one of the last times he can walk in the gym as a NAHS student.

Ben Alegria, Caroline Adler, and Tony Achin take their seats in the front row at informal class day. They are very excited to be graduating on Friday, June 7th.

The camera catches Sherry Yan, Heather Davis, and Brianna Arrighi as they await their turn to say their speeches. They didn't look nervous on stage and delivered great speeches.

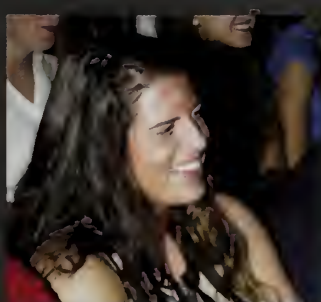

Jessica Chien passes down her superlative to Julia Caudle for most artistic. Jessica loved to spend her time in the art room.

Laura Goodman, Kajsia Long, and Heather Shore sing the chorus to the class song, "It's Time," by Imagine Dragons. The talented individuals who make up the school's chorus put on a wonderful show as Thomas Pettingill beat boxed in the background.

Megan Ronaghan smiles for the camera. Meg's hilarious personality is sure to brighten up anyone's day.

FORMAL CLASS NIGHT

Formal class night, a longstanding tradition at NAHS, is a time to recognize the hard work and dedication the senior class has shown in their studies, athletics, music and community over the past four years. Various academic awards were presented as well as the Athletic Trophy Cup and multiple scholarships. The senior vocalists showed off their musical talents with their rendition of "It's Time" by Imagine Dragons and essayists Brionno Arrighi, Ryan Kingsley and Quinn Scanlon showed off their way with words in their speeches. The 2013 yearbook was dedicated to Mrs. Laurie Bloke, a beloved English teacher at NAHS who passed away during the school year. After the ceremonies, the Class of 2013 lined up so parents could shake hands and share their congratulations and well wishes with each senior. As the night wound down and goodbyes were said, it finally dawned on the seniors that this was the end of their high school career.

-Louren Wonless

Hayley Sheoff, Kaleigh Howarth, Shelby Booth, Sydney Lombert, and Nicole Grombley sing the National Anthem for the audience. The senior concert choir did a phenomenal job in their performances.

Mr. Johnson accepts the 2013 yearbook dedication to the beloved Mrs. Bloke. He speaks on behalf of Mr. Bloke and Lindsey Bloke.

Ryan Kingsley reads his senior speech which centered around a famous quote from Tennyson's poem "Ulysses". Ryan was one of three winners of the senior essay contest.

Alley Harbour and Reid Holden accept recognition for four years on the Superintendent Council from Superintendent Susan Cullen. Both students worked with Mrs. Cullen and other students from various grades to discuss potential improvements to the school system.

Thomas Pettengill wowed the crowd with his boxing during the performance of the senior song "It's Time" by the Imagine Dragons.

Lauren Wanless exits the stage after receiving the Principal's Award. This is given to students who were on the Honor Roll for all four years.

Palmira DeBevaize, Emily Glennon, Sam Vinciguerra, Ally Pacock, Sherry Yan, and Thomas Pettengill accept the perfect attendance award. These six students have been blessed with good health, allowing them to never miss a day of school over the last four years.

Alex Jette was the winner of the Boy's Athletic Cup. Alex has excelled on the football field and on the track throughout his high school career and will continue his football skills at Brawn University.

Kate Kummer receives the Dr. Jim Rice Scholarship. This is awarded to a senior student who lives by the same values that Dr. Rice did.

Sherry Yan, Allison Paquin, Quinn Scanlan, Shalini Paliwal, Haylee Nugent, Rachel Iaconis, Hannah McCarthy, Alley Harbaur, Heather Davis, and Isabel Samuel accept their Top 10 Awards. This is the first time in ten years that the top ten students are all females. Girl Power!

Noelle Danahey flashes a smile for the camera after accepting an academic award. The senior students were excited to share their accomplishments with their families and loved ones.

GRADUATION

The Graduation of the Class of 2013 was held on June 7th. Due to the unfortunate weather, the ceremony was held inside the gymnasium. Although space was limited and the gym was hot, the students and audience enjoyed a nice ceremony. Class President Hannah McCarthy welcomed the guests and thanked everyone who helped prepare for the evening. Sherry Yan and Heather Davis gave insightful speeches that helped encourage and motivate the class. For the seniors the night was a bittersweet one. The excitement for the future was blended with the sadness of leaving behind countless friends and memories. Although high school has ended for the Class of 2013, graduation marked the beginning of a new and limitless journey.

-Hannah McCarthy

The Class of 2013 waits anxiously in their seats to move their tassels to the left, signifying their completion of high school and recognition as alumni.

Taylor Christo, Sydney Bennett, and Charlie Amaya make time to take a quick picture before they walk. These three have been very good friends throughout high school.

Ally Hopkins and Brittany Estrella smile for the camera. Ally and Brittany grew to be great friends.

Sherry Yan, Valedictorian of the Class of 2013, referenced a story in her speech in hopes of inspiring the audience to dream, use their imaginations, and live for others. Sherry will be continuing her education at BU this coming fall.

The Class of 2013 Top Ten: Allison Poquin, Hannah McCarthy, Isabel Samuel, Haylee Nugent, Rachel Loe, Quinn Scanlon, Shalini Polwal, Alley Harbour, Valedictorian Sherry Yan, and Salutatorian Heather Davis.

Jessica Chien and Seana Read take a picture to mark their last day of high school. These two have been best friends since kindergarten and will both continue their education at UMass Amherst.

The beginning of the Class of 2013's processional line leads the class into the gym. In a few hours they will be ending this chapter in their lives.

Kory Senechal, Jarrett Jordan, Sam Korkoyah, and Brett Haughton take a moment from the exciting night to take a picture. The next time they come back, they will officially be alumni.

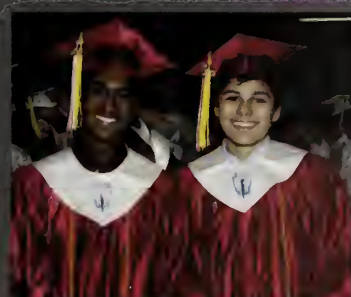

Shuanna Bullock, Alexys Mello, and Ally Wentworth are all smiles as they stand together for a picture. These three are excited to spend the summer together.

Lie Ferri, Jackie Del Bonis, Nicole Hauer, Rachel Iaconis, Rose Mooney, Brittany Esterella, Jenn Richman, Lauren Wanless and Ally Pocock pose together. This group of girls grew close during their four years together on the field hockey field.

Hannah McCarthy, Class President, takes the podium to talk about the senior class history. Hannah had been a part of student council for three years.

GRADUATION

Rachel Iaconis accepts her diploma and officially becomes a NAHS graduate. She will be headed to Northeastern this fall.

Eric Beckwith, Tim Gallagher, Brian Brigham, Caroline Adler, Brandon Lumbr, and Preston Paillucci take a group shot. These friends can't wait for the summer to start.

Sam Maul, Tam Sek, and Alley Harbour take a photo to help remember their fun times this year. They are dazzling in their caps and gowns.

After all of the graduates were handed their diplomas, Mr. Halcomb led the class in the ceremonial moving of the tassel from the right to the left. Congrats graduates!

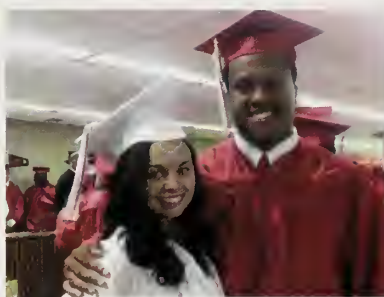

Nicole Haver, Ethan Reddington, and Jamie Grinovic can't hide their excitement for graduating from NAHS. These three were all captains for the tennis teams.

Rachael Halmes, Kaysa Long, and Brianna Arrighi look fabulous in their caps and gowns. These three girls have been in class together since freshman year and will hold on to the memories of their high school years.

Sarah Marrissey and Erica LaFond are eager to be part of the NAHS Alumni. Sarah will be attending UCONN and Erica will be attending Keene State College.

Mukund Nair walks off stage with his diploma in hand. His studious ways throughout high school will come in handy when he is at NYU next year.

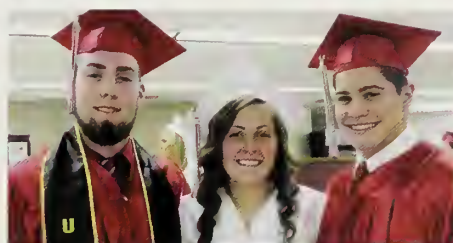

Dave Joyce, Alli D'Amico, Tim Joyce, and Mike Manning are looking good on the night of graduation. The Joyce twins will remain in school together again next year when they attend UMass Amherst in the fall.

The graduates file into their correct seats. Vice Principals Mrs. Tadd and Mr. Beasley did a great job leading the two lines.

Sarabeth Parenti, Jamie Grinovic, Hannah McCarthy, and Brooke Maher smile for the camera prior to the ceremony. These four girls have been playing soccer together since they were in elementary school.

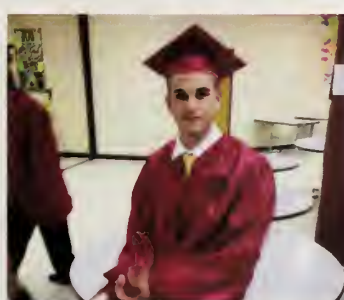

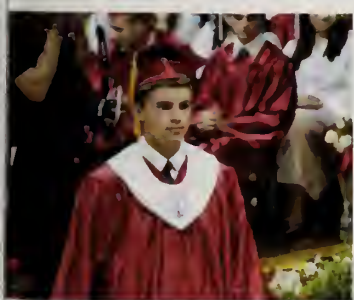

Jack Ponaghan, Meg Wynn, and Nick Allen anxiously await receiving their diplomas. Jack and Nick will both be serving for our country next year.

The senior students scan the graduation program before the start of the night. In addition to listing all of the graduates of the Class of 2013, the program listed all of the students who received scholarships.

ALL NIGHT GRAD PARTY

Shortly after graduating, the Class of 2013 got together one last time for the All Night Grad Party, held at the Hockmock YMCA. There were photographers, caricature artists, jousting, sumo wrestling, pickleball, and even a mechanical bull. There was more than enough food. Later in the morning, a hypnotist started his show and a dozen students proudly did the Harlem shake, showcased their moves for a dance competition, and even delivered an angelic baby. After the raffle drawings, the party came to an end in the early hours of June 8th, 2013. It was a wonderful way to celebrate our four years of high school and it would not have been possible without the countless hours the parents volunteered to organize the party and make it memorable.

-Shalini Paliwal

Hayley Gentile, Hannah McCarthy, Nicole Haver, Rebecca Leovitt, Alli D'Amico, Meg McKenno, Rochel Iaconis, Rose Mooney, Jomie Grinavic and Anna Martin are great friends and pose together.

Kyle Viens, Kaysa Long, Courtney Grimes, Casey Durazzono, and Rachael Halmes stop for a picture on the stairs. The many activities of the night helped keep these five entertained until 5 in the morning.

Anna Martin, Meaghan McKenno, and Hayley Gentile wait to get their caricatures done. These pictures were surprisingly very realistic!

Jackie Del Bonis, Alli Ferrigno, and Paula Robinsan take a break from the excitement of the night to take a picture together.

Sarah Morrissey and Hope Crowley battle each other in the sumo wrestling suits. The extra protective padding of the suits, although hot and sweaty, ensured that no one was injured while fighting.

Tony Achin takes a ride on the mechanical bull. The night was filled with various activities and games.

Sam Vinciguerra and Tyler Mason are all smiles as they enjoy a fun night of many games of pickleball, basketball, and dodgeball.

Corey Kenney, Liz Wolloce, Lauren Wonless, and Jose Mooney fall asleep while being hypnotized. It was hilarious to watch all of the seniors dance and laugh during the hypnotist show.

Jessica Chien, Dave Joyce, Ryan Burns, and Eric Beckwith stand ready at the back line for an intense game of dodgeball. Dodgeball took over the pickleball courts at 2 am to help keep everyone active and awake.

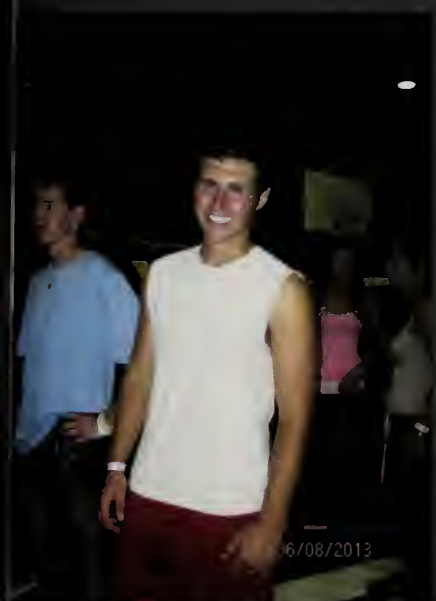

Lauren Wonless and Liz Wolloce take a break from watching dodgeball to smile for the camera. These two kept each other awake into the early morning.

Quinn Scanlon takes a ride on the mechanical bull hoping to beat the champion Meg Wynn's time of 1:40 on the bull. Meg's skills won her a gift card to Toby Keith's.

Caroline Adler gives a hit in the jousting arena. In addition to fighting off one's opponent, one had to maintain complete balance.

Reid Holden smiles at the camera while he referees an intense dodgeball game.

Nicole Hauer, Jomie Grinovic, and Rebecca Leovitt stand in line to get their free picture done by 4-Ever Photos. The pictures were a great way to help document the fun memories of the night.

Sydney Bennett and Charlie Amoyo celebrate a victory after a close match of pickleball. With their athletic ability, these two were a dynamic duo.

2013 EDITORS

When the 2013 editors first met in August, we had very little idea of what we were doing, but together, our hard work turned into something we all can be proud of. We are extremely grateful for all of the help and guidance Mrs. Pasquine, Mrs. Lush, and Dan gave us to make our yearbook a success- and a big shout out to Steph Pasquine for her amazing baking! Being part of the yearbook staff this year was a great experience for all of us, and we can't wait to share this edition with you. We hope you love it as much as we do!

-The 2013 Northern Light Yearbook Editors

2013 Dedication: Mrs. Laurie Blake

With all the future success that the class of 2013 anticipates, we know that we will owe part of it to the faculty at NAHS. For four years, the staff has shown us an incredible amount of support and guidance. Many of us can confidently say that we would not be the people we are now without their presence in our lives. The yearbook dedication commemorates someone who stands a cut above the rest, and when our class voted in December, we all had one person in mind.

This teacher was many things to us: a mentor, a coach, a class adviser, a friend. Whether you were a student of hers or not, she wouldn't hesitate to ask you how you were feeling if you were having a rough day or give you a wave in the hallway. We appreciated her for her free spirit, her endless creativity and her willingness to jump on board with whatever ideas we came up with. She encouraged her students to think outside the box and she was always interested to hear what you had to say. Fun was her number one policy and whether by her "PCP on the Street" acronym for learning the elements of fiction or pushing runners through difficult workouts, she succeeded in making learning enjoyable.

The most remarkable thing about this woman, however, is what she taught outside of class. She showed us how to be ourselves, how to embrace who we are without caring what anyone else thought. She showed us what it means to be passionate about something through her love for her job, running and her dog. She showed us how to be positive even when times were tough by keeping a smile on her face throughout her personal struggles. She taught more than just literature; she taught life lessons that have made all of us better people. The effect she had on our class and this school left an impression that will long surpass the time she spent here.

We could not be prouder to dedicate the 2013 Northern Light Yearbook to Mrs. Laurie Blake.

Mallorie Taylor Lindo

October 3, 1995 - March 20, 2013

Mallorie was one of those people who could light up a room with her smile. Her contagious laugh is one of the many things she has been known for. I think about Mal every day and she drives me to be a better person. She had a never give up attitude and that showed on the soccer field. Even when Mal started to get really sick, she would come and show her support for our team. I am so thankful to have known her and it makes me so happy to know she is finally free, happy and playing soccer again. Love you always Mal.

-Brooke Maher

Mal was an irreplaceable friend, teammate and classmate. She approached every day and every practice with excitement and determination to fulfill her goals. Mal was always there for people when they needed it most, and you could always count on her to put a smile on your face and brighten your day. Although she lived a short life, she left us with no regrets. She was a role model in every way possible, and her legacy is unforgettable.

Rest in sweetest peace Mal,
we love you.

-Jill Costello

I was lucky enough to know Mallorie since I was young and to have the memories we shared. I couldn't have asked for a better friend to grow up with. She touched the lives of everyone she met. She will never be forgotten and will be loved and missed by everyone for forever. I love you Mal.
